'Diplomat Dope Ring' Cracking

. . . BUT STILL IN BUSINESS

New York (UPI) — A federal grand jury Thursday indicted a prominent Massachusetts attorney and 3 others on charges of running a narcotics ring so powerful it could bribe diplomatic couriers — even ambassadors — to smuggle millions of dollars worth of drugs into the United States.

Joseph Sax, 58, well-known Marblehead, Mass., lawyer was named as a "kingpin" of the "diplomat dope ring," which officials indicated was still operating.

Also named in the indictment were Joseph Massa, 60, Revere, Mass., Robert Ager, 37, a Groton, Conn., contractor, and his father, Jean Ager, 60, currently living in Clermont - Ferrand, France. All except the elder Ager will plead to the indictment on Oct. 11.

Aided Wheels

Sax was one-time attorney for former Dominican Republic playboy-diplomat Porfirio Rubirosa, and also for Bobo Rockefeller. In 1955, he sued Mrs. Rockefeller and her former husband, Winthrop Rockefeller, for $100,000 which he claimed was due him for legal services in patching up their marriage in 1952.

He said he had been promised $500,000 for his work. Bobo later divorced Rockefeller, elder brother of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who now lives on a mountain-top estate near Morrilton, Ark.

One of the key breaks in the case came in October, 1960 when federal agents seized Mauricio Rosal, ambassador to Belgium from Guatemala, at Idlewild Airport with 110 pounds of pure heroin.

In Prison

His diplomatic immunity did not cover the situation. He now is serving 15 years in prison.

Sax and his two "lieutenants" were arrested by federal agents on Sept. 27. Federal officials said that couriers would bring the heroin from France through Canada into the United States and deliver it to Ager. The elder Ager is still in France.

U.S. Stty. Vincent L. Broderick, the prosecutor, said that Sax and Massa acted as brokers who not only got wholesale outlets for the narcotics, but also took part in actual importation.

"The defendants were but part of a group that would employe individuals with diplomatic immunity to bring narcotics into the United States," Broderick said.

"During the period of conspiracy, that is back in January 1950 to this date—untold thousands of kilograms of heroin have been brought into this country by diplomatic couriers."

Broderick declined to go deeper at this time into the diplomatic part of the conspiracy except to admit that Rosel was "one of the couriers." He said that Rosel admitted he had received $25,000 for the trip during which he was arrested.

SUZANNE CLIFT

Police Arrest Post-Debutante

. . . BODY IN HER BEDROOM

Boston (AP) — A 21-year-old post-debutante was arrested Thursday night on a murder warrant in the slaying of a young engineer whose body was found in her luxurious Beacon hill apartment.

Miss Suzanne Clift, niece of movie actor Mongomery Clift, was accused of the shooting after she entered Massachusetts General Hospital earlier Thursday night.

She had been the object of an international search since Wednesday after the body of Piero Brentani, 27, an electronic engineer, was found in her padlocked bedroom.

At Hospital

Miss Clift was arrested at the hospital after a taxicab driver notified police he had driven her from South Station, a railroad terminal, to a back bay hotel.

Det. Lt. Edward Sherry said the warrant charged Miss Clift with the fatal shooting of Brentani.

There was no immediate information on her whereabouts while police had sought her in Boston, New York and South America.

Brentani met death from a bullet wound in the back of his head. He held degrees from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology and Harvard University.

James Maycyk, administrator of the hospital emergency ward, said Miss Clift "just walked in and sat on a bench like anyone else looking for treatment." He said she was crying and "gave the appearance of a person looking for a psychiatrist." She was carrying an overnight bag, he said.

He said she identified herself to an attendant but made no reference to the Brentani slaying.

John Anzalone, 21, of Billerica, the cab driver who was given charge of the dachshund, told police he was engaged by Miss Clift at South Station. He said he did not recognize her as the woman police were looking for.

He said she discussed with him where to board the dog and finally told him to drive to 85 Pinckney St., where Brentani's body had been gound.

"She didn't get out right away," Anzalone said, "but then said she wanted to see if anyone was home. She changed her mind and told me to drive to the Statler-Hilton Hotel."

Take Dog

At the hotel, Miss Clift dismissed him and told him to take care of the dog, Anzalone said. She left in another cab.

Anzalone drove to the Joy Street Police Station and learned for the first time his passenger had been the missing girl.

The Pinckney Street house has been vacant since the discovery of Brentani's body there Wednesday night.

A medical examiner said he might have been dead 3 days before Miss Clift's social registerite grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Pierce Pearmain, 71, returned Wednesday from her Cape Cod summer home to her 5-story Beacon Hill town house.

A pistol with one discharged cartridge was found in the house.

Miss Clift had vanished. At the Boston airport police found luggage—two cases, a zipper bag and a metal box—belonging to her.

Miss Clift made her debut in 1958. She was a graduate of a Boston finishing school and had studied at Mount Holyoke College.

Her mother, Mrs. Peter Thomson, divorced, remarried and also living on Beacon Hill, said Brentani was "a fine, sensitive fellow" whom Suzanne met on a blind date about two years ago. They had dated since.

Head Cold Puts JFK On Bench

Washington (AP)— It was a dreary, rainy day and President Kennedy had a slight head cold, so he took the day off.

The White House said he will be back on the ball today though, receiving official visitors and taking off in midafternoon on a political barnstorming trip to the Midwest.

At his doctor's suggestion, Kennedy canceled his appointments for the day and remained in the White House living quarters. Press Secretary Pierre Salinger told newsmen the President's ailment was diagnosed as a minor upper respiratory infection."

"He has a cold in the head," Salinger said.

The treatment prescribed included anti-histamines and salicylates.

The press secretary said the President's temperature and pulse were normal, and his throat was not sore. He spent part of the day signing documents and conducting business by telephone.

A reporter at Salinger's late afternoon news briefing asked if, by any chance, the President was watching the opening World Series game on television.

Salinger grinned and said, "the last call I had from him a few minutes ago indicated he might be."

READY TO GO AGAIN

—$5 BILLION—

Conferees Agree On Works Bill

Washington (AP) — House-Senate conferees made public Thursday details of their agreement on a compromise multi-billion-dollar appropriations bill to finance construction of water projects and operations of various government agencies in the year that started July 1.

The amount agreed on in the bill, the conferees said in filing their report in the Senate and House, totals $5,067,869,400.

The total compares with $4,613,807,900 voted by the House and $5,211,271,400 by the Senate. The administration had recommended $4,745,332,000.

Ready For Action

The compromise measure now is subject to action by the House and Senate.

The bill includes $400 million to start President Kennedy's emergency public works program, compared to $500 million voted by the Senate.

Army Engineer projects in Nebraska included in the compromise bill are:

Construction — Salt Creek and tributaries, $2,300,000; Missouri River agricultural levees (Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska) $2,350,000; Missouri River channel stabilization, Sioux City to Omaha, $6,000,000; Omaha to Kansas City $2,400,000; Waterloo $100,000.

Surveys — Nemaha-Little Nemaha $11,000; Platte River $35,000.

Planning — Little Papillion Creek $50,000; Norfolk $80,000.

Reclamation Bureau

Reclamation Bureau projects, all part of the Missouri basin project, include:

Construction —transmission division $14,379,00; Ainsworth unit $5,800,000; Farwell unit $6,800,000; Frenchman-Cambridge division $1,714,000.

Planning — Cedar Rapids division $241,000; North Republican unit $26,000.

Engineers projects also included $26,000,000 for Big Bend Reservoir construction, $2,300,000 for Fort Randall Reservoir and $20,000,000 for Oahe Reservoir.

WALTER SCHIRRA . . . undergoes medical check.

Doctors Say Schirra Fine

. . . UNDERGOING DEBRIEFING

Aboard U.S.S. Kearsarge in Pacific (AP) — Walter M. Schirra Jr. had a happy reunion aboard this Honolulu-bond carrier with 5 fellow astronauts Thursday and began a technical review of his 6-orbit space flight.

Cheerful and in fine health, Schirra was up at 7 a.m., breakfasting on scrambled eggs, sausages and four cups of coffee after an 8-hour sleep.

One of his first comments on arising was: "hose down Sigma 7, I'm ready to go again."

The 39-year-old Schirra was surrounded by engineers, technicians and tape recorders as he sat at a mahogany table in the admiral's quarters and recounted his voyage through space. He went over every detail from launching at Cape Canaveral, Fla., Wednesday morning to his bullseye landing near the Kearsarge 9 hours and 13 minutes later.

Final Decision

From Schirra's debriefing and scientific studies at Cape Canaveral will come the final decision on whether to go ahead with an 18-robit flight early next year. There were indications the overwhelming success of Schirra's trip has placed the long flight next on America's space agenda.

The review will continue until the Kearsarge arrives off Hawaii Saturday afternoon. Then Schirra will be flown by plane or helicopter to Honolulu and board a jet for the manned space center at Houston, Texas.

Navy Commander Schirra will not tell his story to the public until a news conference tentatively scheduled Sunday at Houston.

Push Maximum

An 18-orbit 24 hour flight would push the two-ton Mercury capsule to its maximum endurance, a space agency spokesman said.

Reaching the Kearsarge with a group of space agency doctors and technicians Thursday morning were Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, Jr., Navy Lt. Cmdr. Malcolm Scott Carpenter, Air Force Maj. Virgil I. Grissom, Air Force Maj. Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr., and Donald K. (Deke) Slayton. Navy Cmdr. Alan Shepard Jr., who was aboard the Pacific command ship Rose Knot near Guam was the only one of the 7 astronauts who couldn't make the reunion.

They boarded the Kearsarge off Midway. There the space capsule was transferred at dawn to a tug, then to a C-130 transport plane for delivery to Hickam Air Force Base in Hawaii and eventually back to Cape Canaveral.

Schirra's flight was an epic of precision. His capsule parachuted less than 3 miles from the Kearsarge in the prime recovery zone 285 miles northeast of Midway Island.

Rejecting a helicopter ride, Schirra stayed inside the space capsule until it was hoisted aboard the carrier.

A 2½ hour medical examination almost immediately after the flight showed the astronaut in "excellent condition" with no ill effects.

Lost 4 pounds

He had lost 4 pounds. One doctor said he'd have lost as much or more weight "playing a game of football."

Medical tests continued Thursday with further checks of his eyes, ears and heart.

Schirra said he did not experience vertigo or nausea from his 9 hours of weightlessness. Doctors quoted him as saying it was further proof the nausea suffered by Soviet Cosmonaut Gherman S. Titov was an individual rather than a general reaction to weightlessness.

No Trouble

Schirra had no trouble eating or performing bodily functions.

The flight provided little new medical information, a space agency spokesman said, except confirmation man can operate in a weightless state for long periods.

At Cape Canaveral, officials disclosed the mission was within 1½ minutes of being terminated on the first orbit Wednesday because Schirra was having trouble with his space suit temperature control, running too hot.

88 Degrees

The suit registered 88 degrees over Australia. But, as he passed over Canton Island in the Pacific, Schirra indicated he was cooling off, so the flight went on.

Otherwise, "Wally Schirra performed the flight exactly as it had been planned, with very minor deviations," said Ken Kleinknecht, an operations official. "Each deviation only increased the value of the flight. We are ready to proceed now with a one-day mission next year."

Chris Kraft, Mercury flight director, declared, "this was the finest flight we have had yet, and Schirra performed as well as any man could hope to perform. We have proved that man has a place in space."

Reds Play Down U.S. Orbit Shot

Moscow (UPI) — The Soviet Union Thursday played down the space flight of astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr., and played up the 5th anniversary of its pioneer Sputnik I, which launched the space age on Oct. 4, 1957.

Pravda, the official Communist Party newspaper, relegated Schirra's 6 orbits to a 250-word account on the back page. It gave banner headlines on the front page to the satellite anniversary, as did other Soviet newspapers.

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev sent a congratulatory cable to President Kennedy, but unlike his message on the flight of Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, it contained no offer of space cooperation.

FORD WHIRLS YANKS WIN

San Francisco (AP) — The New York Yankees won the opening game of the World Series Thursday, whipping the weary San Francisco Giants 6-2 as pitcher Whitey Ford scattered 10 hits en route to a record 10th triumph in the baseball classic.

The wily 33-year-old lefthander, making a record 18th series start for the American League champions, had his series record for consecutive scoreless innings snapped at 33 2-3, but shut out the Giants after the third inning on 4 hits.

Meanwhile, Clete Boyer provided Ford with the key hit — his first home run in World Series competition — a bases-empty shot in the 7th inning that put the Yankees ahead to stay, 3-2. The homer came off San Francisco starter Billy O'Dell, like Ford a left-hander.

Fridays second game of the best-of-7 series here, starting at 1 p.m. (CST), will be a battle of right-handers. Ralph Terry (23-12) is expected to start for the Yankees and Jack Sanford (24-7) for the Giants.

The Yankees got rolling against the Giants today in the first inning when Bobby Richardson and Tom Tresh singled and Roger Maris scored both with a double. The Giants got one back in the second on singles by Willie Mays, Jim Davenport and Jose Pagan, then tied it in the third on Chuck Hiller's double and singles by Felipe Alou and Mays.

Boyer's homer in the 7th cracked the tie. The Yankees made it 5-2 in the 8th when Dale Long's single and a sacrifice fly by Boyer drove in runs. They closed out the scoring in the 9th on Elston Howard's run-producing single.

Where Ford and Boyer stood out as the stars for the Yankees, Mays was the main offensive threat in the San Francisco line-up. He clipped Ford for 3 singles in 4 times at bat. Pagan, the Giants' shortstop, also had three hits.

Grainger Bros. Sold; To Remain In Lincoln

Grainger Brothers Company, now in its 75th year of business as a wholesale grocery distributor out of Lincoln, has been purchased for an undisclosed cash price by The Fleming Co., Inc. of Topeka, Kan.

Principals involved have described the transaction as an added industrial advantage for Lincoln. The Lincoln operation will be continued here under the name of Grainger Brothers Company.

It will be a Nebraska corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of The Fleming Co. Fleming has purchased the inventory and operating equipment of Grainger Brothers as well as the Lincoln company's 25-acre industrial tract at the southeast corner of Highway 77 and Pioneers Blvd.

Plans to Proceed

Fleming will proceed with the plans developed by Graingers, which include a new 200,000 square foot distribution center in Lincoln's new industrial park. This development is expected to be in operation within a year, according to Ned N. Fleming, president of The Fleming Co. and now chairman of the board of Grainger Brothers.

The new plant will have rail sidings to accommodate 8 cars of groceries and 5 cars of frozen and fresh fruits and vegetables simultaneously. It also will have covered dock space for about 25 trucks.

All of the personnel of Grainger Brothers are being retained, with the exception of J. John Grainger who is retiring. President of Grainger Brothers will be S. A. Wilson, with C. E. Vernon as vice president; John N. Grainger, vice president; Al Spoomer, junior vice president; and H. W. Probasco, secretary-treasurer.

J. J. Grainger

The Fleming Co. is a voluntary group sponsor supplying a complete line of food products, health and beauty aids and certain non-food items to nearly 600 affiliate retail members. In addition to Lincoln, it now has distribution centers in Kansas City, Mo.; Topeka and Wichita, Kan.; Oklahoma City, Okla.; and Houston, Tex.

The firm also provides a complete advertising program service. Also available to its affiliate members are store personnel training programs, centralized meat procurement, store site location and development assistance, a complete store accounting service and management counseling.

One of the largest organizations of its kind in the nation, the company in 1961 had net sales of $203,815,245 as

Drivers Abandon Wrecked Autos; For Good Reason

Attica, Ind (AP) — State troopers were puzzled when both drivers disappeared from the scene of an auto collision Thursday on U.S. 41, 12 miles south of here. There were no indications either had been hurt.

The mystery cleared when a check showed both cars were stolen, one from Attica and the other from Chicago.

Frontier Seeks Big Air Route Increase

Omaha (AP) —Frontier Airlines disclosed Thursday it is seeking approval by the Civil Aeronautics Board of two new routes including non-stop service between Omaha and St. Louis.

The proposals would extend Frontier's routes to St. Louis on the east and to Portland on the west, Lewis Dymond, Denver, president of the line, said here.

Gov. Frank Morrison said Nebraska would support the application. The governor said that Frontier, under the new management headed by Dymond, has been cooperative and we want to help Frontier in every way possible."

Other Applications

Arthur C. Storz Sr., head of the Omaha Airport Authority, said this type of service has been needed for a long time. line's plan calls for eventual The airport authority has not yet decided whether to support the Frontier application as such, he explained, but is supporting Omaha-St. Louis service. Ozark Airlines also has an application for Omaha-St. Louis service with some intermediate stops. Braniff also provides service to St. Louis by way of Kansas City.

Dymond said part of the air-non-stop service between Denver, Lincoln, Omaha and St. Louis.

The additional routes, if granted would give Nebraska a direct Frontier link between Omaha, Lincoln, Grand Island, and the West Coast.

Proposals Listed

Dymond said the airline has asked:

—A route from St. Louis through Kansas City, Omaha, Lincoln, Denver, Salt Lake City, Spokane and Portland.

—A route between St. Louis, Columbia and St. Joseph, Omaha, Lincoln, Rapid City, Billings, Great Falls and Seattle.

—Extension of the Denver-Omaha route beyond Omaha to St. Louis by way of St. Joseph and Columbia, Mo.

The application would provide Frontier with new routes from Omaha to St. Joseph, Columbia and St. Louis, which have not been accessible on Frontier flights under present schedules.

It also would give Omaha and Lincoln a virtually straight line route to Rapid City and Billings, for the first time.

Kennedy Wins Broad Tariff-Cutting Powers

Saturday End Hoped For Session

Washington (AP) — Congress gave President Kennedy Thursday just about all the broad new tariff-slashing powers he asked as Senate and House alternately rushed and tugged their way toward hoped-for Saturday adjournment.

The trade bill, which topped Kennedy's legislative list in the 87th Congress, was first passed by the House 256 to 91. A few hours later the Senate by voice vote shouted on to the White House this compromise measure, polished into final shape by a Senate-House conference.

It gives the Pesident unprecedented authority to bargain for lower tariffs worldwide and to wipe them out in the case of European Common Market nations for some items. It also provides for the first time broad government relief to industries and workers harmed by opening of U.S. doors to foreign competition.

Drug Bill Passed

House approval, 347 to 0, sent to Kennedy a bill clamping tighter federal controls on production and sale of prescription drugs.

But the pell mell drive to go home was snagged on disagreements that somewhat dimmed optimism for Saturday adjournment. These involved: (1) a bill to raise postal rates and give pay raises to 1.6 million federal workers, (2) the foreign aid money measure, (3) a $417-million agriculture appropriation, (4) a $400-million supplementary appropriation.

However the Senate and House conferees reached tentative agreement on a $3,928,900,000 foreign aid bill, about $1 billion under the appropriation sought by President Kennedy.

Rep. Otto Passman, D-La., who reported the tentative agreement, said the prospects looked good for a final agreement Friday.

Along with the big bills that were passed by Senate and House, a host of minor legislation whizzed through with little or no difficulty.

Among the major bills, the Senate passed by voice vote a measure authorizing federal highway financing aid during the next two fiscal years ending June 30, 1965. It was sent to a Senate-House conference committee.

Sent to Conference

A technicality raised by Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, sent back to a Senate-House conference the dual postal rate-pay raise measure. He protested as out of order a section the House had never considered previously — a 5 per cent increase in benefits for about 600,000 retired civil service workers.

Rep. Carl Albert, D-Okla., acting as presiding officer, upheld the point.

Quickly the Senate-House conference was reformed and in 5 minutes agreed on a modification of the provision. The 5 per cent pension boost was retained but a provision for automatic financing from the civil service retirement fund was knocked out.

The conferees said they would try to obtain a $50-million appropriation in the last money bill of the session, the supplemental, to finance the increase.

Minutes after the conference broke up the Senate approved the new version by voice vote and sent it along to the House.

Aid Bill Stuck

No progress was made in a morning session on reconciling differences between the $4,422,800,000 foreign aid appropriation voted by the Senate and the $3,630,400,000 voted by the House.

The agriculture money bill argument revolved principally about House refusal to approve a $1.6-million allotment for a peanut research laboratory at Dawson, Ga., insisted on by Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga. This and about half a dozen other Senate changes rejected by the House forced the measure back to the Senate.

The deadlock is between Russell and House members from other peanut-growing states, including Texas, North Carolina and Virginia.

Russell, maneuvering on the measure, said it appeared impossible for the conferees to reach agreement on the bill. He obtained Senate passage of a simple resolution to run the agriculture department in the current fiscal year, but House concurrence with this seemed unlikely.

ON RAIL TRIP . . . Pope, accompanied by Premier Fanfani, blesses station crowd.

Whistle-Stopping Pope Makes Rail Pilgrimage

By BENNET M. BOLTON

Vatican City (AP) — Pope John XXIII made a day-long journey across Italy Thursday on a train trip that was both a pilgrimage of prayer and a whistle stop tour unique for a modern ruler of the Roman Catholic Church.

He returned to the Vatican Thursday night, ending a precedent-breaking round trip that lasted nearly 16 hours.

His 400-mile pilgrimage across the Italian boot brought out hundreds of thousands in dozens of towns and villages along the route from Rome to Ancona on the Adriatic Sea.

The trip was a major departure from papal tradition: no pope had ridden a train for 100 years; none had traveled so far from the Vatican rule since 1870 — and no pope in modern times had shown the informality Pope John displayed Monday.

Jokes, Chats

He joked with newsmen in two exchanges that were the closest thing there has been to a papal news conference. He chatted with railway workers. He sat down at lunch with Premier Amintore Fanfani of Italy, the first time a modern pope had broken bread with an official of a government outside the Vatican.

Pope John said he would do it agian; and indicated he might even travel further — by air.

The 80-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church made the trip to pray for the success of his Ecumenical Council, opening a week from Thursday at the Vatican.

First he prayed at the shrine to the Virgin Mary at Loreto, near Ancona on the Adriatic. Then, on the way back to Rome, he prayed in Assisi at the tomb of St. Francis.

Excited

Pope John was as excited as a schoolboy on his first railroad trip. He could hardly wait for it to begin.

"It seems you always have to wait," he told newsmen around his railroad car as he leaned from a window.

Through the day, the Pope generally kept smiling. He watched eagerly from his window, seeming to enjoy every sight. He continuously gestured to bless crowds. At Loreto he allowed railway workers to kiss his ring.

But he was solemn, too, as he prayed for his council at Loreto and Assisi. He did not forget this was a pilgrimage, and he told one crowd his "impressions of today will accompany us during the council."

JFK Names Telstar Board

Washington (AP) — President Kennedy named Thursday the 13 prominent Americans who will incorporate the unique company which is to own and operate the U.S. portion of a global space communications system inaugurated by the Telstar satellite.

The group is made up of 5 practicing lawyers, 4 industrialists, two bankers, a publisher-lawyer and a labor union official. No representative of a communications company is included.

Appointed under a recently passed act of Congress, the incorporators are subject to Senate confirmation.

The incorporators will select their own chairman and will serve as a board of directors until stockholders in the new corporation select their own board. The incorporators will not be paid by the government.

Meredith Escort To Class Limited

Oxford, Miss. (UPI) — Negro James Meredith went to classes unescorted for the first time Thursday, but the tinder-box situation created by his presence on the "Ole Miss" campus forced cancellation of this weekend's homecoming festivities.

He was driven to the Graduate School Building at the University of Mississippi Thursday morning by 3 U.S. marshals, but the federal officers remained behind while Meredith walked up a path and into the room where he has his first class.

Prior to Thursday Meredith had been preceded and followed by marshals on all trips to and from classes. The decision to let Meredith walk that far alone was part of the government's plan to slowly loosen its grip and let the campus get back to normal.

Had it been necessary, however, the marshals could have been back at Meredith's side in a matter of seconds.

On his way to class, Meredith cut across a second path and walked ahead of a group of white students enroute to the same building.

In Washington Army Secretary Cyrus R. Vance announced later that about 3,500 of the federalized Mississippi National Guard troops, called into active service last weekend, will be released from all duty Friday night. Another force of approximately 4,500 was authorized to return home but will remain on active status and on call. Neither of these two groups is in Oxford. About 3,000 more, which have been in Oxford since the weekend, will remain on duty there.

The homecoming — or "Old Grads' Day"—was cancelled at the insistence of federal officials who feared new violence if the anticipated crowd of 35,000 gathered at the racially-tense school.

The football game with Houston that was to be held in connection with the school's homecoming was switched to Jackson after Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara and Army Secretary Cyrus Vance concluded the game should not be held in Oxford.

166 U.S. Marshals Wounded At Oxford

Washington (AP)—The Justice Department disclosed a total of 166 marshals, including specially deputized border patrolmen and Bureau of Prison personnel, were wounded during the rioting at Oxford. The force of 358 marshals suffered 30 per cent casualties, including 29 cases of gunshot wounds and some acid burns, the department said.

The department said 8 deputy marshals were hurt at the campus riots before tear gas was used against demonstrators.

'Show Cause' Order Given On Walker

Springfield, Mo. (AP) — The federal government was ordered Thursday by a U.S. district judge to show cause why former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, arrested in the Oxford, Miss., rioting should not be released on bail.

The show cause order, which the government must answer next Tuesday, was issued by Judge John W. Oliver after Walker's attorneys had filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

Walker, one of 200 persons arrested in rioting which broke out with the enrollment of a Negro at the University of Mississippi, is charged with inciting insurrection and seditious conspiracy. His bond was set at $100,000 in Oxford and then he was flown here for detention at the U.S. Medical Center.

Unemployed Are Fewest Since '60

Washington (AP) — Fewer Americans were unemployed in September than in any month since 1960, the Labor Department announced Thursday, but the rate of joblessness remained at the disappointingly high August level of 5.8 per cent.

Women and children kept the rate up. An unusually large number of housewives —about 700,000 — began job-hunting when the children returned to school. And many out-of-school teen-agers didn't find work.

Nevertheless, the number of unemployed dropped by a normal 420,000 in September to a total of 3,512,000. This was the smallest number since September of 1960, just before the latest recession.

Employment last month went down also. The drop of 1.1 million from August, to a total of 68,668,000, was about one-third larger than usual.

The number of job holders topped any previous September, however.

French Assembly Defies De Gaulle; Premier Out

. . . President Threatens Resignation

Paris (Friday) (AP) — The French National Assembly early today ousted Premier Georges Pompidou with a vote of censure, rebuking President de Gaulle for his plan to amend the constitution by referendum.

A total of 280 deputies voted for the motion of censure, well above the required majority of 241. Under assembly rules, the other 170 deputies, including those abstaining or absent, were counted as having supported the government.

Earlier today de Gaulle sought to counter the effect of the anticipated Assembly action and appealed directly to the French people for support of his proposed constitutional amendment providing for the future election of French presidents by popular vote. De Gaulle threatened to resign if the public rejected the plan in a referendum scheduled Oct. 28.

Must Resign

The assembly vote means that Pompidou must resign, bringing the Fifth Republic to its first real cabinet crisis. The last time the Assembly overthrew a government was in April, 1958, under the Fourth Republic, when it toppled Premier Felix Gaillard.

De Gaulle has two choices. He can nominate another premier. But aides said before the vote he had already decided to dissolve the Assembly and order new general elections. These are expected to come on Nov. 4, a week after the referendum on the constitutional change.

A wide combination of parties, extending from the Socialist on the left to the Independent Republicans on the right, furnished the votes which downed Pompidou. This represented an effort by the old line parties to restore parliamentary government to France, and they were spoiling to take the issue to the country.

The opposition charged de Gaulle was violating the constitution by going over parliament's head on a proposed constitutional amendment.

Speech To Nation

The gaunt, 71-year-old president spoke in a radio-television address on behalf of his presidential election proposal just two hours in advance of the opening of the Assembly debate.

Coolly appealing to the people over the heads of his assembly foes, he said he may be forced to quit if his proposal is defeated. He said he needed "yes" votes to strengthen his hand in future activities.

De Gaulle said he feels future presidents "need the direct confidence of the nation." He added that he believes the moment has come for the people to show that they intend to retain the present system of government after he is gone. He called for a massive vote in favor of his plan.

Mosquito Menace Is 'Potentially Explosive'

. . . HEALTH DEPARTMENT REPORTS

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

The City-County Health Department Thursday said the Lincoln area has a "potentially explosive" mosquito problem, but conceded no report had been made to the City Council and County Board.

Health Director George R. Underwood and his aides outlined the problem's scope and possible solutions in reporting on a two-year study before a meeting sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

County Board Chairman Ralph Harlan and City Council Vice-Chairman D. L. Tyrrell, attending the meeting with other interested officials, immediately called for a full report by the health department to a joint session of the two governing bodies.

Areas Pinpointed

Dr. Underwood said 180 major mosquito-breeding areas —largely on the western and northern fringes of the city— had been pin-pointed by the survey.

He said the recent 10 cases of "equine (horse) encephalitis indicated the presence of infected mosquitos, but, fortunately, no human cases have occurred."

"Luckily, the mosquito season is just about over," he continued, pointing out the ingredients for an "explosive mosquito situation" are here.

Dr. Underwood said spraying is a costly and largely ineffective way to control mosquiries in urging action for the draining of the mosquito-breeding areas as a permanent and positive control solution.

Shallow, standing water of 10 days duration and marshy land breed mosquitoes, he explained. Lakes with properly-designed shores and wave action are no problem.

Salt Lake Commended

Dr. Underwood said a large West O area, which breeds millions of mosquitoes, needs to be drained, but commended the mosquito-control action of Salt Lake.

Les Sanger, environmental health division head, thumped for the creation of a mosquito control district under LB 378, contending that LB 404, under which the city and county are now operating, has pitfalls.

However, City Atty. Ralph Nelson said LB 404 provides the city and county governing bodies with "broader powers" to abate and control mosquitoes than possible under a mosquito control district.

When Sanger suggested a mosquito district board could devote full attention to the problem, Commissioner William Grossman countered that the health department had given no indication there was a problem except what he had read in the newspapers.

Grossman noted some property owners, receiving mosquito-breeding notices under the survey, lacked sufficient information or resources for individual action, commenting on a departmental observation there had been a lack of administrative follow-up on the notices.

Pamphlet Printed

The department said a pamphlet on mosquito control, including possible individual action, is being printed for distribution.

Several Jaycees and governmental officials indicated the approach to large drainage area problems, necessitating engineering and cost surveys, should be taken through joint city and county action rather than attempted by a mosquito control district.

Hal Schroeder, Salt-Wahoo Watershed District manager, pointed out several examples of cooperation between city, county and state agencies in eliminating mosquito-breeding places collaterally with new public works construction.

"I personally feel a tax levy through city and county government could be more effectively used than by setting up a separate district," he added.

4 More Possible Diphtheria Germ Carriers Treated

Omaha (AP) — Four more persons were being treated Thursday as possible carriers of diptheria, but a Health Department spokesman said none of the 4 has shown symptoms of the disease.

They were described as neighbors of the 5-year-old girl who was hospitalized earlier this week as a possible diphtheria victim.

Health authorities were still waiting Thursday for results of further tests to confirm whether the girl has the disease.

A spokesman noted that a person can carry the organism, yet not come down with the disease.

Cattle-Feeding Profits May Fall This Season

By GLENN KREUSCHER
Farm Editor

Syracuse — Livestock feeders from Lancaster, Saline and Otoe counties on their annual fall tour here Thursday was told that the outlook for profits from feeding cattle in 1962-63 doesn't appear quite as favorable as the results for 1961-62.

Fred Olson, extension economist from the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture, told the feeders that higher prices for feeder cattle would be a factor in the outlook for smaller profits for the coming year.

He told the feeders, "Our economy is not running at full capacity and the outlook depends on government action that may be taken with regard to taxation. Increased population will continue.

Nebraska Favorable

Olson told the feeders that Nebraska cattlemen are in a favorable location in regard to increased population centers in the west and southwest which will be demanding more beef.

Elmer Schlaphoff of Waverly, association president, announced plans for a beef evaluation clinic, sponsored by the feeder group, at the College of Agriculture in January.

Cattle will be selected from member's feedlots and taken to the college for live evaluation. A week later the feeders will study carcass evaluation where one-half of each carcass has been boned down to determine cutability and yield while the other half of each carcass will be left hanging on the rail for study by the feeders, Schlaphoff said.

Mechanized feeding systems were the main attraction as the feeders toured the local area farms of Lavern Smith, Elson Wiles, Orville Koch and Richard Kasten.

At the Koch farm an automatic feeding system was demonstrated. Public Power officials said it was a duplicate of one that a South Dakota farmer had left for 5 days to care for livestock.

The tour inspected the first day's operation of a newly constructed slat floor confined swine system at the Koch farm.

Omaha Pair Found Guilty; Death In Chair Prescribed

Omaha (AP) — A District Court jury of 9 women and 3 men Thursday found Ewather Hall, 19, and Curtis Eugene Rowland, 22, Omaha, guilty of first degree murder and prescribed death in the electric chair.

The two were accused of the slaying of Omaha cab driver Albert Anderson last Dec. 9 after robbing him of $56.

An appeal to the Nebraska Supreme Court is automatic in a first-degree murder case when the defendants are sentenced to death.

In their final arguments attorneys for Hall and Rowland attempted to show that they were both of subnormal intelligence.

The jury received the case at 12:16 p.m. Wednesday but recessed at 11 p.m. without reaching a verdict. The jury resumed deliberations Thursday morning and the verdict was read at 10:39 a.m.

District Judge Robert L. Smith had instructed the jury they could find the pair either guilty or innocent and prescribed the death sentence. In the case of Hall they were also given the option of finding him innocent by reason of insanity.

compared to $55,072,677 in 1952. Net sales for the first quarter of 1962 were $66,045,453.

Rapid Growth

The company's number of employes has grown from 573 in 1952 to 1,257 at the present time. Grainger Brothers now serves more than 200 retail outlets and employs some 150 people.

Graingers operates branches in Fairbury, McCook and Holdrege and serves stores throughout all of Nebraska and parts of Iowa, Colorado and Kansas.

The firm was founded in 1887 by two brothers, the late H. B. Grainger and the late Joseph Grainger. Originally located at 917 Q St., the firm made several moves before purchase in 1897 of property at the southwest corner of 8th and P where it is still located.

The building there was the old Powers house and later the Tremont Hotel. In 1907, Graingers added a five-story building to the west and in 1912 erected another five-story building to the south at the northwest corner of 8th and O.

From its original owners, the firm passed into the hands and management of two other Grainger brothers, the late Harry K. and J. John, who is now retiring as president, both of whom were sons of H. B. Grainger.

Possession of Grainger Brothers will be taken by Fleming Co. Oct. 14 with the operation under new ownership the following day.

Expansion Expected

Commenting on the transaction, Fleming said that "we are very happy to become a part of the life of the city of Lincoln. I believe the future there to be outstanding and look forward to a constantly expanding operation in the years ahead.

"We intend to carry on in the fine tradition of Grainger Brothers."

Bennett S. (Abe) Martin, who handled negotiations between Graingers and Fleming, said: "Lincoln is fortunate to acquire this association with The Fleming Co. The move portends an even greater acceleration of this wholesale business than had been anticipated up until now."

Striking Dockers To Work

New York (UPI) — A federal judge Thursday ordered 93,000 striking longshoremen along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts back to work. The dockworkers said they would have cargo moving by Saturday.

A temporary back-to-work order was handed down by Federal Judge John F. X. McGohey as the result of a Justice Department petition ordered by President Kennedy under the Taft-Hartley Act.

William Bradley, president of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA), said orders had already been issued to union locals from Maine to Texas to notify members to return to work at 8 a.m. Saturday.

Earliest

He said he believed this was the earliest that the workers could get back on the job.

Hundreds of shipping companies, idled by the walkout and major maritime unions which honored picket lines, immediately made plans to get thousands of tons of cargo out of warehouses and into the holds of waiting ships.

Other ships were tied up at docks with cargo, some of it perishable, to be unloaded.

'Cooling Off'

The order that McGohey handed down was in the form of a temporary restraining order. The Justice Department had asked for an injunction, which would, under terms of the Taft-Hartley law, provide an 80-day "cooling off" period.

The judge scheduled a hearing on the injunction petition for next Wednesday morning.

He said he ordered the dockworkers to return to work immediately, however, because Justice Department officials and attorneys had pointed out that the strike effected a "substantial part of the maritime industry and would imperil the health and safety of the nation if permitted to continue."

Boy, 11, Hurt Playing With Lighter Fluid

A misdirected squirt of ignited lighter fluid from a can being used as a "flamethrower" by 3 11-year-old Lincoln boys Thursday night sent one to a hospital with serious face burns.

St. Elizabeth Hospital officials said Lawrence Gilmore, 11, of 3211 East Summit Blvd., was in good condition early Friday, suffering first-degree and second-degree burns to the right side of his face and forehead and possible injury to his right eye.

Detective Captain Robert Sawdon said the incident had first been reported as an assault, not an accident.

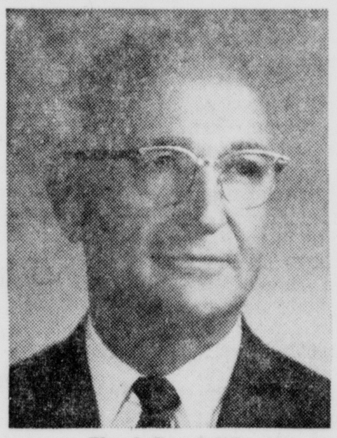

Capt. Sawdon said Larry had told his parents that some older boys squirted him with the fluid near 33rd and Sheridan as he and several friends were returning from a Boy Scout meeting.

After an hour's investigation by two officers, it was learned that the injury had occured while the boys were playing with the lighted cans, and that there was no assault.

Capt. Sawdon said:

"We first of all, urge that kids do not resort to such items as toys or playthings, but secondly that they do not submit false reports since these tie up officers unnecessarily for a long period of time, causing them to neglect legitimate duties."

Country In Orbit

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The new season of the year has seemed to bring a quickening in the pace of things. The San Francisco Giants found themselves so full of life as to sprint across the finish line just ahead of their downstate neighbors in the National League and now come face to face with the mighty New York Yankees. The World Series at any time always has fans across the nation jumping all over the place but the senior circuit finish this year has put a new luster on the windup of this 1962 baseball season.

And on top of this annual event, we have just witnessed the successful and historic space flight of Astronaut Walter M. Schirra. The 39-year-old Navy commander circled the earth six times—a total of 160,000 breath-taking miles—in just nine hours and 13 minutes. The flight was impressive from a number of points of view. While not in orbit as long as either of Russia's last two cosmonauts, Schirra did set a U.S. record and became the first space flyer to make a landing in the Pacific. His drifting for a time in space and the accuracy of his landing both attested to the mechanical perfection of his craft.

New Space Feats

With no physical ill effects, Schirra gave the U.S. further hope of landing a man on the moon in the near future. In total, the flight was described as a thing of perfection in all regards. It has long been the feeling of most space experts that Russia has surpassed us in a quantity measurement of space accomplishments but that the edge in quality belongs to the U.S. This opinion has been reinforced with Schirra's flight.

Schirra and the rest of the space crew at Cape Canaveral added something extra to this latest U.S. space accomplishment—a good dash of humor. Some of it was lost on the American public because it involved situations peculiar to the space personnel themselves but it was plain to see that the atmosphere at Cape Canaveral is a confident one.

Humor does not show up in the midst of great pessimism and we doubt that optimism could be as prevalent as it is if those associated with our space effort had any feeling of running second. We can find reminders in the National League race and elsewhere in the sports field to the effect that too much confidence is a dangerous thing but the proper amount is an essential ingredient of any successful venture. Just as obvious at Cape Canaveral as the optimism is the dedication and ability of those who head our space program. It cannot be denied that Schirra's flight was a magnificent accomplishment and gives this nation another bridge in the gap between us and the moon.

When you have a solid performance such as this, you have some grounds for the kind of outlook our space experts seem to have. None of these people, of course, is thinking of resting on any laurels. Schirra had no sooner safely landed than there was talk of our next flight—an extended 24-hour orbit of the earth. The U.S. space program appears to be operating on a schedule aimed at victory and this is all that the citizens of this nation can expect. And it might be noted by the rest of the world that this nation's achievement's are being made without the sacrifice of other elements of our national life.

It is, thus, with a happy and confident note that we enter into the autumn season of the year. It is rather a conflict with the outward appearance of nature but inwardly there is no conflict. While our natural environment appears to take on a sort of stagnation at this time, it is actually preparing itself for the next season of beauty.

No sooner do the trees shed this summer's leaves than they manufacture the buds that will blossom in the spring. And when the grass turns brown, it is but a part of the process that guarantees us a deep green after the last snow has melted away. It is a time in nature of rebuilding and preparation, not a time of death and stagnation.

And the world behaves in much the same manner. By now it is starting to put aside the carefree ways of summer and take on the full challenge that faces it. Already the United Nations is in full swing, our national elections are under way and the new car models are about to hit the dealers' showrooms. The world, too, is in the process of oiling up its machinery and getting ready for the tough work ahead. It is time for getting a new start and for getting things done and the pattern is displayed for us on many news fronts.

Facing Work Ahead

But a renewed spirit does not mean a somber spirit. The use of our energies may sap us some physically but it is just the kind of medicine on which the human being thrives. He has to be in the process of producing something or he will waste away into nothing.

Not Easy Street

It is popularly supposed that top management in large U.S. corporations is a sort of administrative paradise where knighthood in our free enterprise structure guarantees unending benefits, perpetual well-being and baskets full of money. In short, if a man can get there he's got it made.

The truth is less lustrous. There is little inbuilt security beyond the ulcerous requirement to succeed against any odds. If the pay is good it may be brief. Special talent is presupposed and not a defense for lagging profits or competitive slippage.

Business Week verifies this in a recent issue when it spoke of the recent tidal wave of management changes in top companies. Some are the result of an orderly changing of the guard, the rise of new talent and the expected retirement of the old. But these are days of pinched profit margins, increasingly sophisticated techniques and new problems resulting from fast progress and change. There seems to be no way out. If a president has lifted his company to new heights at the expense of all of his resourcefulness he often has to step aside so that a fresh successor can take it from there. It reminds of the true story of a naval officer who commented on the superior design of a new ship and complimented the head of the ship building company. A listener suggested that the company would probably get more orders on the strength of it. The naval man said, "Probably not." The design no doubt represents the ultimate in that management's conception of ships and all succeeding ships would be similar. The Navy can't afford to level off. The company will probably bring a new talent.

This may seem like a harsh system but it is a form of austerity which makes national leadership and will carry the country to a safe port.

Alarming Farm Ideas

It was a real shock to read of the reported ignorance of many Nebraskans of certain agricultural facts. In a report on a survey of Nebraskans, Dr. William E. Colwell said that "It looks like we need to do some educating." That is the understatement of the year if the survey he reported on is correct.

The survey showed that high percentages of people believed farm income to be higher today than non-farm income, believed farm prices higher than 10 years ago, believed food prices to have advanced further than other products since World War II and believed 10 per cent or more of the national budget was going to farmers. Many also thought we had enough surplus today to feed the nation up to five years without any additional production.

It is almost unbelievable that anyone in Nebraska could have such erroneous ideas as these. They are all just the opposite of the truth. It is no wonder that there has been difficulty in finding widespread support for programs aimed at improving the lot of the farmer. If he were as well off as some people must think he is, there would indeed be little cause for alarm.

Not all farmers are going broke but we are far from general farm prosperity when per capita farm income stands at $1,373 a year compared to a non-farm figure of $2,345 and when the prices received by farmers for their goods have decreased 17 per cent in the past decade. This report by Dr. Colwell should stir all agriculture into an active educational campaign so that decisions on farm matters can at least be made with understanding.

A New Ice Age?

A few years ago any protest against the nuclear bomb as a weather changer was met by amused headwagging. "Old wives tale," the scientists said. Something in the class of planting potatoes in the dark of the moon, or poking sulphur and molasses down a child as a sovereign defense against spring ailments.

Well they have a challenger now.

According to Dr. Irving Krick, head of a Colorado private weather forecasting concern, unusual weather changes the past few years could be more than a coincidence. In a story told to the National Observer he hinted that we could be progressing toward another ice age.

Weather, Dr. Krick said, is determined by the distribution of barometric pressures. These are, in turn, determined by energy from outer space. Before the bomb, the sun was the sole source of that energy. Being a variable star it has periods of high and low energy. At times of high energy its heat increases at the poles. This sends volumes of cold air down through the northern hemisphere. We are presently in a period of low solar energy which should mean milder winters. But the opposite is taking place.

It is possible, the doctor, speculates, that bomb energy has been supplementing solar energy, setting up a man-made radiation belt around the world. Such a belt has reasonably been established. Possibly when the sun returns to its high energy output, supplementing the man-made radiation belt, the winters will become even more severe. Continue this long enough and the northern hemisphere could become icebound again.

Speculation? No doubt. But a phenomenon such as Dr. Krick described may have a direct relation to the peculiar behaviour of recent weather as indicated by carefully observed world data. How the good doctor's thesis will work out in the long run remains to be seen. But he has already performed a distinguished piece of service. He has given us something new to worry about.

Liston Ready To Aid Good Cause

WASHINGTON — Charles "Sonny" Liston, the son of an Arkansas cotton picker and now world heavyweight boxing champ, didn't wait more than a few hours before firing back a telegram giving his okay to staging the next fight under the auspices of Big Brothers in order to help prevent juvenile delinquency.

"I would just like to say this is the chance I like best to prove that I mean what I say about helping boys that need help," Liston replied. "Nothing can make me happier than to accept this offer.

"I only wish it was up to me. My return-bout contract with Floyd Patterson gives him the right to say when it will be held and where it will be held. I hate to leave it up to him. If he is willing, I am with him all the way. The sooner this fight takes place the better I will like it, indoors or outdoors."

Liston's telegram was in reply to a proposal I had made as president of Big Brothers in the National Capital that the next match be staged in the new National Stadium in Washington in the presence of members of Congress and other Washington notables, with part of the proceeds going to keeping boys out of trouble.

As Liston pointed out, his contract gives Floyd Patterson certain rights in calling the time and place of the next fight. Big Brothers in the National Capital therefore has now put the proposition up to Floyd, who has already done fine work in establishing the Floyd Patterson houses in New York for boys just out of reformatory.

Actually, Patterson is not entirely a free agent since he is under obligation to Championship Sports. We'll report on developments when and if they materialize.

The doctors of the USA may not know it, but their "trade union" is getting them up to their ears in politics. Most doctors, having spent their lives trying to heal men's bodies, would be flabbergasted at what the American Medical Association and kindred agencies are doing in their name.

Last week, just as the election campaign began to warm up, the AMA, Blue Cross, and Blue Shield began a widespread publicity and advertising campaign on medical care for the elderly. It was timed, not because any bill is now before Congress—the bill is dead as a dodo for this session—but because of the forthcoming elections.

The publicity campaign took two forms:

1. Full-page ads in Time and Life magazines by Blue Cross and Blue Shield, the medical insurance agencies which did a great deal to defeat the Medicare bill.

2. A series of letters to newspapers trying to deny carefully documented reports in this column showing how doctors had raised money for key congressmen who blocked Medicare, how they had helped finance the Saskatchewan doctors' strike, and how one doctor in Lexington, Ky., had cut off medical attention to a 78-year-old woman.

Nixon Revives Anti Red Line

WASHINGTON — Richard Nixon is practicing his art again, which is the "soft on communism" attack against those who have or seek a job he wants himself.

As used against Gov. Edmund G. Brown it is preposterous and it occurs to no reporter to suggest that Nixon might believe it. It is instead discussed from the standpoint of whether it still is a good act and the political analysts weigh his reasons for adopting it.

California will soon be the first state in population and political leverage. It has every familiar problem of American life in the giant but not the economy size: schools, roads, urban sprawl and all the rest, plus the particularly difficult question of adequate water supply. Nixon is stressing his program for combatting the communist menace in California.

Among those commenting on this final form assumed by the Nixon campaign is his friend and former campaign manager, James Bassett of the Los Angeles Times. Bassett says calmly that it is unlikely that Nixon can demonstrate any degree of "softness toward communism" by the Brown administration.

It is instead, according to Bassett, a deliberate attempt to bolster his strength among right-wing Republicans and the John Birch Society. Bassett attributes to Murray Chotiner, Nixon's 1952 campaign manager, who is now in after being out during the latter part of the Nixon vice-presidency, the warning that Nixon must get solid Republican support to win.

☆ ☆ ☆

This is because of the Democratic advantage in registration which is three to two and seems to be growing. In California less than in most states, this party tie does not bind but it cannot be ignored.

Nixon apparently believes that by attacking the Birchers last spring he has established a moderate position from which it is now safe to take off as he is doing. Such calculations are familiar in his career and the evidence so far is that they have gained a high degree of public acceptance.

This is the former vice-president's first try for state service and the intimate, personal responsibilities of a governor toward his people. It appeared at first that he might make a real effort to harness himself to the state chariot but the difficulties were soon made manifest.

☆ ☆ ☆

Both his private and public experience within the state were too limited to afford him background in depth. His speeches were plainly a struggle. At times they were even amateurish and reminiscent of the farm speeches delivered by the big-city presidential candidates of recent times.

The press began to suggest that Nixon had not found an issue. Under the urgings of Chotiner he has now gone back to the old one.

What's A Bun Without A Wienie?

Pawnee Republican Editor Max Martin has been perturbed almost to the point of pricing woolies, and all because of the wooly worms. Someone there has discovered some black caterpillars, a dire sign of severe and lengthy winter weather. He aired his fears editorially and has since been reassured by other readers. One sympathetic lady, reading of his alarm as she walked down the lane from the mailbox home, found a brown caterpillar with only black tips. That helped a little. He felt much better, though, when another friend found and brought in an all-brown one.

Norris Alfred apparently doesn't think today's housewife is unduly encumbered as far as cooking duties are concerned. The Polk Progress editor says the gals have plenty of leisure time because of all the labor-saving gadgets such as mixers, squeezers, openers, cookers, sharpeners, steamers, boilers, slicers, ironers, washers, dryers, waxers, cleaners, shiners, dusters, sprayers, wipers, freezers, coolers, pitters, peelers, canners, broilers, shredders and beaters—both husband and egg.

And in addition to that, they can go to any store and buy food that is already squeezed, sliced, seasoned, flavored, baked, dried, soaked, cleaned, peeled, cooked, washed and stamped with a seal of approval.

Holdrege Citizen Editor Harold Spence is of the opinion that a recent news story

Bill Plourd of the Nance County Journal has what could be profitable advice for young parents whose sprouts have entered into the excitement of school life for the first time. "If you have a kindergartener at your house, he'll soon be bringing home and proudly displaying crayon pictures he's drawn. Don't throw them away. I've just seen an exhibit of high-priced modern art. You should be able to sell those drawings for big money."

"will probably do more toward starting fatties on a diet than all the preachments about extra poundage endangering health."

The item: "Obesity is seven times more frequent among women of the lowest socio-economic level than it is among those of the highest level."

Mr. Spence's translation: "Women of little social note tend to be fatter than their well-heeled society sisters."

When bigger and better uniform packaging laws are introduced, Ed Krikas of the Comstock News wants a seat on the front row reserved for promoters.

How come, he asks, that weiners come in packages of six, while buns come in packages of eight? Any way you figure, on a small scale, you come out with too many of one or the other.

"The only way you can break even is to buy four packages of wieners and three packages of buns—24 of each. The next break in your favor comes at 48 and the next at 72. Twenty-four hot dogs are too many for the Missus and me and we don't have room for 24 people in our house. So we don't eat hot dogs."

Columnist Eleanor Seberger of the Dawson County Herald and her husband recently set off on a trip, more or less as a 25th wedding anniversary present to themselves. She was recalling the first honeymoon trip in a 10-year-old Model A Ford that broke down a long way from nowhere in the middle of the Ozarks.

She remembered, too, some of the earlier dreams of that young couple. Some, she said, "have been realities for a long time and some fell with a thud." One fond hope that both of them laugh over now was the desire to have their own tennis court. It persisted for awhile, but now "keeping sandburs, morning glories and such pests off a garden makes more sense than off a tennis court."

Judge Paul White

Lincoln, Neb.

Star staff writer Don Walton's idea of comparing candidates for Chief Justice is a good one. However, there is much more to be said for Judge Paul White.

Judge White was acting municipal judge for four years where he tried over 5,000 cases. At present he is a district judge with 10 years experience where he has tried over 4,000 cases. These facts were mentioned. However, it was not mentioned that:

He served on the Nebraska Supreme Court by their invitation, which shows their confidence in and regard for him.

He is president of the Nebraska District Judges Association whose members consist of all district judges, including his opponent.

He is endorsed by both (or all) retired Nebraska Supreme Court justices, E. B. Chappell and Paul E. Boslaugh.

His endorsements come from the whole judicial and legal fields who are most qualified to recommend for Chief Justice.

Tired Of Rebels

Lincoln, Neb.

I am sick and tired of rebels. Rebels against the most just and generous government ever organized on the face of this earth. Rebels who force the President of our country to use armed force to carry out his oath of office to defend the Constitution and laws of the United States of America.

Our standard of citizenship and intelligence should be so high that resistance would be unthinkable. I am chagrined that Governor Erbe of the great state of Iowa should express sympathy with a state that is in armed rebellion against the laws of the United States. It may well be that when Governor Barnett made his final decision, he had been reviewing the life and times of another great Mississippian, Jefferson Davis. The former Mississippian had a lot more power back of his rebellion than has Governor Barnett, but he came to grief. Nearly all the governors of the South have deplored Barnett's action. It is a shame it can't be unanimous with the heads of all the states.

And what is all the shooting about? A Korean veteran with a good record who wants to continue his education in Mississippi is asking for an opportunity to attend its university. No one questions his intelligence or academic qualifications. No one questions his patriotism. There is only one issue. Namely, the color of his skin. We think this matter has been settled for a long time. We think Governors Barnett and Erbe, General Edwin Walker and their ilk are simply ghosts of ideas and men who died a hundred years ago.

Full-Time Mayor

Lincoln, Neb.

Citizens of Lincoln who are in favor of more efficient city government should get out and support the full-time mayor plan. It does not increase the powers of the mayor and council but provides for present duties and responsibilities to be carried out more efficiently by assigning executive function to a full-time mayor, while leaving legislative functions to the City Council. The mayor as full-time administrator can carry out the council's orders and by his personal knowledge of the needs of the city departments make plans for our growing city.

Under the present system, the council is burdened with details and has little time for long-range planning. Our city is actually a big business in which we all have quite an investment. We should be willing to hire a qualified full-time employe at a reasonable salary to handle the executive responsibilities of this business for us.

Price Of Milk

Davenport, Neb.

What in the world is happening to us when we put money before our God, or when we must take milk away from our babies? Does anyone realize how much the parents of four or more children must pay for milk for just one week? Some little ones can't have all they would like even now because of the price.

Those big smart men who are the leaders are always finding some way to make a few more dollars off the farmer. Doesn't anyone know that we are signing away our freedom every day when we sign on the dotted line for a couple more extra pennies? Soon there will be no say-so for any of us because we signed on the dotted line for someone else to tell us when we can sell or when we can't.

I urge everyone to stop and think before signing, because it will be too late afterwards.

Merit Plan Would Change Way Judges Chosen

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the 5th in a series of articles by Star staff members on the November election.)

By BETTY PERSON
Star Staff Writer

Nebraska voters this November will have an opportunity to express themselves on a proposed amendment which would bring a basic change in the manner in which judges of the State Supreme Court and District Courts are chosen to serve.

At issue is the proposed amendment to the constitution which would establish the so-called merit plan for selecting judges—a compromise between the elective and appointive methods of choosing state judges.

The proposal to be submitted to Nebraska voters is patterned after the Missouri Plan—one which has been generally considered or adopted in other states interested in this method of selecting judges—but is tailored to fit Nebraska's conditions and needs.

Basically, the plan is designed to minimize political influence and provide a degree of security of tenure, while retaining an element of popular control.

Now All Elected

At the present time, Nebraska's Supreme Court judges and District Court judges are elected on a nonpartisan basis. Terms for Supreme Court judges are 6 years, and 4 years for District Court judges.

The chief justice of the Supreme Court is elected at large, the 6 associate justices are elected by districts. District judges also are elected by their appropriate judicial districts.

If a vacancy occurs before the end of an elected judge's term, the governor now appoints a successor to fill the unexpired term. If he wishes to continue in office, the appointee then stands for election for the next regular term.

Under the proposed Merit Plan, vacancies would be filled by a different method:

First, judicial nominating commissions would be created for the office of chief justice of the Supreme Court; for each judicial district of the Supreme Court, and for each judicial district of the District Court.

7 Members

Nominating commissions would consist of 7 members to serve on staggered terms fixed by the Legislature. One member would be a judge of the Supreme Court as designated by the governor and would serve as chairman. Three members would be designated by members of the bar residing in the area from which a judge is to be selected. The remaining 3 members would be appointed by the governor from the same area, but would be citizens not admitted to practice before the courts of the state.

Second, when a vacancy occurs, it would be filled by the governor from a list of at least two nominees submitted to him by the appropriate judicial nominating commission.

If the governor should fail to make an appointment from this list within 60 days, the appointment would be made by the chief justice, or acting chief justice, of the same list.

At Least 3 Years

Finally, the amendment provides that such an appointee would serve until the first general election following the expiration of 3 years after his appointment.

At that time, the name of the appointed judge would be placed on the ballot along with the proposition: "Should or should not this judge be retained in office." His name would be the only one on the ballot for the post and he would "run against his record."

If he is approved, then he will remain in office for another term, but must again run non-competitively on his record every 6 years thereafter.

If he is not approved, the original appointive procedure would be repeated.

This proposed amendment was placed on the ballot by a 35-7 vote of the 1961 Legislature.

Details Omitted

It leaves a number of details to be worked out by the Legislature, since proponents stated they wanted an amendment which would provide only the basic formula rather than attempting to "legislate" in the constitution.

It also would make it possible for the Legislature to add other judges to the plan, such as county judges, if it should wish to do so at a later date.

Proponents for the Merit Plan argue that the present method results in the election of judges largely on a "popularity" basis, rather than selection based on qualification.

'Merit Choice'

They further argue that a judge is a man practicing a skilled profession and he should be chosen on the same basis as any other professional practitioner—on the basis of merit.

Under the merit plan, they contend, the best qualified persons are selected as judges, but still the voters have a right to express themselves on his continued service and can remove him if his record is unsatisfactory.

Proponents also argue that many qualified attorneys will not now seek a judicial position because they would have to campaign for the office—enter a popularity contest—and that judicial offices should not be involved in political campaigning.

Opponents to the Merit Plan argue that it places limitations on the right of the people to select the man they want to hold important judicial posts.

Panhandle 'Disaster' Studied

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman advised Gov. Frank Morrison Thursday that his department has under "careful consideration" Morrison's request that Nebraska's Panhandle be considered a disaster area and that authority be given to sell surplus corn at 75% of support price to stabilize local economy.

Freeman said he has asked the Nebraska 'State Disaster Committee and local county committees to supply estimates and recommendations.

Morrison had made the requests to alleviate the situation in western Nebraska resulting from an early freeze in September which destroyed most of the feed grain crop in that area.

Morrison also had suggested that consideration be given to allowing farmers to borrow corn from storage and repay it in kind from next year's crops.

Freeman explained, however, that there is no legal authority to permit this.

The agriculture secretary said he is requesting State Disaster Chairman Albert Francke to consult with Morrison about it.

"Under the law and in consideration of legislative history surrounding its passage, we are authorized to sell grain only to eligible farmers with foundation herds who cannot otherwise purchase grain without jeopardizing their future operations," Freeman said.

"We cannot sell grain at 75% of support price for feed lot consumption," he also explained.

Freeman said a representative of the U.S. Department of Agriculture would come to Nebraska if necessary to review the recommendations with the governor.

Opposite Views Given By Beermann, Callan

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

First District congressional nominees have expressed diametrically opposing views on a number of national issues.

In answer to a series of questions presented by the League of Women Voters of Nebraska, Republican Rep. Ralph Beermann and Democratic nominee Clair Callan have taken to opposite corners.

Total disagreement emerged on foreign aid, federal aid to education and federal responsibility in the area of medical care for the aged.

Callan said he favors foreign aid by "an approach emphasizing long range development," while Beermann said he does not favor "any aid whatever."

Callan endorsed more federal aid for education; Beermann opposed it.

On medical care, Callan declared that "the federal government does have a responsibility in attempting to meet the medical needs of its older citizens."

The Keer-Mills act, he said, is "inadequate, and unless a better plan is brought forward, I favor the program under social security."

Beermann said the federal government has no responsibility whatsoever in meeting the health needs of the aged, "particularly so since the present plan that has been offered by private capital is so wide in its range of benefits."

Callan listed "farm legislation that will raise farm income and at the same time reduce surpluses and the cost to the federal government" and full employment as the problems which interest him most.

Beermann chose "farming and the accompanying problem of effecting a full government retreat from it within the span of my effectivness as a legislator."

Petition candidate George Menkens favored aid to Foreign nations "only in the field of their economy and agriculture" and opposed additional federal aid to education.

Menkens said he believes "the federal government has a definite responsibility in meeting health needs of older citizens — but only those who are in financial need."

Economy and agriculture are listed as his chief interests.

Airplane Crash Claims GE Executive, 3 Others

Jacksonville, Fla. (AP) — A General Electric executive, his wife and two employes of the company apparently died in the crash of a private plane into the Atlantic Ocean southeast of Jacksonville.

The plane crashed on a flight Tuesday from Syracuse, N.Y., to Daytona Beach, Fla. It is believed to have gone down about the time a Navy jet fighter fell in the same area, killing its pilot.

This brought speculation that the two planes collided, but the Navy refused comment and a witness said he saw only one large object fall into the ocean.

The 4 persons aboard the plane were identified by the company as Donald L. Johnson, 40, recently appointed acting manager of the GE defense systems department; his wife Jean, about 35; pilot John B. Ryan, 42 and co-pilot Gerald C. Bogardus, 27. Ryan lived at Johnson City, N.Y., and the others at Syracuse.

The Johnsons were parents of 3 children and Ryan was a father of 3.

Navy salvage men discovered pieces of the private plane wreckage when they sought to recover the F3H Demon Jet Fighter which carried Lt. (J.G.) E. E. Faulk of Columbus, Ala., to his death.

A search was instituted for possible survivors, but none was found. There had been no reports of another plane missing in the area.

Check Link

The Navy, the Civil Aeronatics Board and the Federal Aviation Agency are investigating to determine if the two crashes were linked.

Frank Nowaczek of Jacksonville, who was fishing close to shore off South Ponte Vedra Beach, said he saw an object explode in the air and fall. He first took it to be some kind of missile.

The object was blown outward and downward by the explosion, Nowaczek said, and there was a reddish orange flash in the center of a dense black cloud about 10 degrees above the horizon. Then a larger black cloud of smoke spread over the area.

Possibility

"I thought possibly it might have been a small plane, but after I saw the mass of smoke spreading over the ocean I didn't know what it was," Nowaczek said.

Pieces of the twin engine Super Beechcraft were definitely identified as parts of the plane, which GE leased. The pieces were taken to Cecil Field Naval Air Station west of Jacksonville.

CAB inspectors began checking them. They said they could not immediately determine if the planes had collided.

Space Mutt A Mother

Moscow (AP) — Chernushka, one of Russia's space-dogs, has given birth to two black-spotted white pups, Tass reported.

WRECKING WRONG HOUSE

Mrs. Henry Derderian, left, and her friend, Mrs. Archie Gazurian, emote for benefit of photographers in Hollywood, Calif., Thursday as they inspect part of the plumbing torn from its moorings in a home owned by Mrs. Derderian at 711 North Cahuega Way. When Mrs. Gazurian heard noises in the empty home, which Mrs. Derderian has available for renting, she notified the owner. Otis McCarter, who works for a house wrecking firm, told police he was embarrassed—the house he was supposed to wreck is located at 711 Lillian Way—a couple of blocks away.

Hall Co. School Levies Revised

Grand Island (AP)—The Hall County Board of Equalization has revised levies for two school districts and established a levy for the Park View Village district.

The new levies, necessitated by the Nebraska Supreme Court ruling that annexation of an area comprising a part of school district No. 1 (Stolley Park) by the city of Grand Island was void, were decreased more than 4 mills, from 15.11 to 11.03, in District I.

The Grand Island school district, or No. II, was increased from 42.77 mills to 44.36 mills. In the Stolley Park district, the decrease was from 13.76 mills to 10.04 for the general fund and from 5.56 mills to 5.76 mills for the bond fund.

Levies were re-established on the basis of figures supplied by County Clerk W. H. Loescher indicating a decrease of $1.508,792, or a total of $40,292,547 assessed valuation in the Grand Island school district.

Communist China Charges Indian Copter Intruded

Tokyo (AP) — Communist China charged an Indian military helicopter "intruded over the Galwan River Valley area in (Red) China's Sinkiang Province Thursday.

The New China News Agency claimed the helicopter, carrying more than 20 Indian troops, landed "near the posts of the Chinese frontier guards."

The agency said "the Chinese side would rightly regard as serious provocation any future landing by Indian aircraft near the positions of Chinese posts."

Retirement, Car Pool Committees Finished

The Legislative Council Study Committee on State Retirement, and the Car Pool Study Committee—both composed of the same membership—completed their work Thursday on recommendations they will make to the full Legislative Council next month.

No disclosure will be made of their respective recommendations until the Council meets.

Sen. George A. Knight of Lincoln is chairman of the Retirement Committee, and Sen. Theodore H. McCosh of Gering heads the Car Pool Committee.

VitoGRO FOR GRASS

New VitoGRO has up to 20% more Nitrogen than competing brands.

In the Fall—right now—there is one stage in the cycle of blue grass called TILLERING. This is the thickening up by the growth of side shoots from the crown. This occurs largely in the Fall and continues until heavy freezing stops growth Activity. Liberal feeding in October and November gives a tremendous boost to tillering. You can make your lawn so thick as to make it difficult for weeds to infiltrate next year.

New VitoGRO for Grass is loaded with long-lasting, metered release nitrogen—plus all the other nutrients needed for healthy grass. Just one application feeds a full 6 months, yet is guaranteed not to burn. Try a bag soon.

DOWNTOWN GATEWAY

POSTCARD by Stan Delaplane

Up to a few years ago, the International Set was made up of international playboys, oily sheiks from oily Araby, Elsa Maxwell and Left Bank arty girls.

(With a Right Bank papa sending checks — the Right Bank is Chase First National.)

There were a few international spies. When the spy business is good, they live at the spy hotels. The best spy hotels — where you can spy in comfort — are the Baur-au-lac in Zurich, the Palacia in Estoril, the Aviz in Lisbon and the Palace Hotel in Madrid.

☆ ☆ ☆

"Actually," said Alfonso Font, who manages the stylish Palace, "the spy stores about this hotel have been exaggerated. I don't say that we didn't have some here during the war. Still —."

While spying has great importance, the locale has changed. And the Palace now depends on the new International Set.

One of the large segments of the new Set is the Hollywood Set — the cats you used to find around Dave Chasen's.

"The reason for this," said the movie man, "is taxes. There are literally dozens of movie people living overseas now on the 18-month plan. If you live oustide the U.S. for 18 months, you don't pay taxes on the first $25,000 you make.

"Why, you can reach into Geneva or Rome or Madrid and pick up an all-star cast of names.

"Then there's another reason: You can make pictures cheaper. You can do the Battle of Gettysburg with more men than Lee and Meade had between them and it'll cost you less than a hundred extras in Hollywood.

"You don't have to strew the battlefield with dummies. You can have real, live actors playing dead."

☆ ☆ ☆

Naturaly, this has changed the International Set. The old group simply hates it. But when Prince Rainier married Grace Kelly and threw Lady Docker out of Monaco, they could see that the Good Old Days were gone.

"Even the Count de Bestegui hasn't had a party in years," one of them said mournfully the other day.

Bestegui used to have parties where Italian peasants shinnied up a greased pole for a chunk of salami — a sort of folklore thing. Everybody had oddles of fun.

But at the last one, a famous producer was invited. And a Life photographer got in dressed as Louis XV — he had a Leica pinned under the jeweled belt buckle. So things have changed. And the new International Set is more chatty about box office than Biarritz.

☆ ☆ ☆

"Of course Hollywood will always be there," said the movie man. "I mean you can have the Battle of Gettysburg right in Pa. At Gettysburg. It isn't going to photograph as good as when you build it on the lot.

"Look at Brando in 'Mutiny on the Bounty.' They got it in Tahiti with a thousand Tahitians. They had to go home and do it again in Hollywood.

"But then the star has 10 per cent of the picture. He worries about how he's going to keep any of it. The agent for the songwriter has clauses to keep HIS money.

"So the easiest thing for everybody is to live here. Write the picture in London. Shoot it in Spain. Have the set built in Hollywood. Rush home and shoot the interiors and get the hell out before the tax people put the arm on you."

President Kennedy is talking about putting a cork in this 18-month thing. And most hotel men in Europe are worried about who the next International Set is going to be. They rather hope spying will pick up again.

"The people we had during the war were very well-behaved," said Mr. Font. "And they paid their bills regularly."

Official Challenges Humphrey On Nickel Deal

Washington (AP) — A government official challenged Thursday former Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey's estimate of the cost of nickel sold the government by Humphrey's M. A. Hanna Co.

Humphrey testified in August that the nickel sold to the national defense stockpile by his company averaged below market price, about 71 cents a pound.

However, Louis Brooks, deputy director of the Government Services Administration's Cost and Finance Division said the government paid a price premium of $24 million for the nickel. He estimated an average cost of about 91 cents a pound.

Brooks testified at the first session of new hearings by the Senate Stockpile Investigating Subcommittee on Hanna's nickel deals.

The previous hearings ended abruptly Aug. 17 in a bitter exchange between Humphrey and Subcommittee Chairman Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo.

L. W. Spang, secretary of the Hanna Mining Co., testified that the company set its price for the nickel ore and refused to deviate during some 6 months of negotiations.

Hanna refused to accept any government provision for redetermination of contract terms if a study proved profits were exorbitant, he said.

Other testimony indicated that the government urgently needed the nickel, since the Korean War still was going on at the time the contract was signed Jan. 16, 1953, in the closing days of the Truman administration.

"We felt there was just too much risk in the ferro-nickel process," Spang said. "If the government wanted to take the risk, we were happy to cooperate."

Humphrey testified previously that Hanna would rather have developed the process on its own, at a more leisurely pace.

Brooks also testified that the contract was signed a few days before Humphrey became secretary of the treasury when "orders were relayed from the top that negotiations be terminated and the contract be signed."

However, he said he couldn't say where the orders came from or how they were delivered, or even specifically who received them.

HOUSE GETS NEW MOTTO

The motto, "In God We Trust," painted in gold letters above the chair of the speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, now is in place for the few remaining days of the present session of Congress. It will be replaced during the recess by an enlarged version inscribed on the marble wall. Rep. Fred Marshall, D-Minn., sponsored the resolution calling for the motto.

Public Library Commission Asks A $15,000 Increase

The Public Library Commission Thursday submitted its biennial budget request seeking an increase of approximately $16,000 over its appropriations for 1961-63.

Specifically, the commission asked for a total appropriation of $355,042 for 1963-65, compared with $339,058 appropriated for the current biennium.

Of the new request, $148,384 would come from the property tax-supported general fund, an increase of $15,984 over this biennium. The balance of $206,658 would come from federal funds, the same as was appropriated for 1961-63.

Executive Secretary Louise Nixon said the additional funds were needed for general salary increases and added operating expenses plus the addition of an administrative assistant to help with the increased work load.

The commission proposes hiring a "well-trained librarian" for the administrative post who would be salaried at $6,900 annually. Federal funds could pay $3,900 of that annual salary, she explained.

Yugoslavia Ups Prices, Salaries

Belgrade (AP) — Bread prices in Yugoslavia will be raised to 15 dinars (2 U.S. cents) per kilogram (2.2 pounds), the Yugoslav government announced, and salaries will be raised by 400 dinars (slightly less than 50 cents).

The ruling resulted from new measures for creating more favorable conditions for increase of agricultural output, the announcement said.

605 Evacuating

Hollandia, West New Guinea (AP) — The Greek-Australian liner Patris is evacuating 605 Dutch civil servants and dependents leaving ahead of the Indonesian takeover next May. They will be landed in Greece and flown home from there.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY EXTENDS UNIQUE LINCOLN CONTINENTAL 24-MONTH—24,000-MILE WARRANTY TO ALL '63 PASSENGER CARS AND TRUCKS

These are the cars

FORD
Falcon
Fairlane
Galaxie
THUNDERBIRD
•
MERCURY

LINCOLN CONTINENTAL

This is the total-car warranty

Ford Motor Company warrants to its dealers, and its dealers in turn warrant to owners, as follows: that for 24 months or for 24,000 miles, whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will be made by tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance services, routine replacement of parts, such as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades and brake or clutch linings, and normal deterioration of soft trim and appearance items. The benefits of the warranty are available to the original purchaser and to subsequent owners of the vehicle during the time and mileage limits prescribed in the warranty.

Here is what it means to you

The new 1963 Ford-built cars and trucks are quality-engineered and manufactured to serve you better and last longer than ever before. The proof is in the warranty . . . proof of quality unheard of a few years ago.

In fact, it was only two years ago that Ford Motor Company announced the 12-month, 12,000-mile passenger car warranty which became the industry standard as other manufacturers followed Ford's lead. At the same time, Lincoln Continental became the only American-built car warranted for two full years or 24,000 miles, whichever came first. Now, this warranty applies to all Ford-built cars, regardless of price. Why is this possible?

Actually, the new warranty is a natural outgrowth of the engineering leadership that has resulted in twice-a-year (or every 6,000-mile) passenger car maintenance. It goes hand-in-glove with such Ford-pioneered service savers as the elimination of the 1,000-mile inspection . . . 30,000- to 36,000-mile intervals between major lubrications, 6,000-mile intervals between oil changes and minor lubrications, self-adjusting brakes, aluminized mufflers, and longer-life electrical systems.

These features that save you time and money as you drive are a direct reflection of the total quality achievements of Ford Motor Company.

Negro Wants Choice In Clemson Entrance

Alexandria, Va. (AP) — Attorneys for a Negro seeking transfer to Clemson College told the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals Thursday he should be given a choice to enter now or in January.

Attorneys for the South Carolina college contended the case of Harvey B. Gantt, 19, a student in architecture at Iowa State College, should be sent back to a U.S. District Court for trial on its merits. They argued no preliminary injunction should be granted now to permit immediate transfer to Clemson.

The court took the case under advisement.

There was no indication when the judges — Chief Judge Simon E. Sobeloff, Baltimore; Morris A. Soper, Baltimore, and Clement F. Haynesworth Jr., Greenville, S.C.—will rule.

Gantt, whose home is in Charleston, S.C., would be, if successful in his suit, the first Negro to enter Clemson since the college was founded about 70 years ago. He would be also the first Negro admitted to any hitherto all-white college in South Carolina.

Gantt appealed from a decision by Judge C. C. Wyche of the U.S. District Court for eastern South Carolina denying a preliminary injunction against the college, the state's agricultural and technical college.

Mrs. Constance Baker Motley, New York attorney, argued that Gantt is well qualified to enter Clemson and that he failed to get acceptance because of a racial policy.

Although the Clemson classes started in September, she added, Gantt should be given the choice of entering now or in the next semester in January.

William L. Watkins, Anderson, S.C. who was accompanied to the court by President R. C. Edwards of Clemson, argued that transfer now would hurt both Gantt and the college.

Split Of Brink's Reward Set

Boston (AP)—The division of the $100,000 in reward money offered in the Brink's robbery of a dozen years ago will be announced Friday.

Richard J. McCarron, chairman of a 5 member committee named to assign shares of the reward, made the announcement.

Brink's money express office was robbed the night of Jan. 17, 1950, of $1,219,000, up to then the nation's largest cash robbery.

More than 20 persons have put in claims for the money, including Police Chief Dean Meredith of Towanda, Pa., who arrested Joseph J. (Specs) O'Keefe and Stanley Gusciora on gun carrying charges at Towanda 6 months after the robbery.

O'Keefe and Gusciora later were indicted as participants along with 8 others. The 11th man who took part died before the indictments. Gusciora died before the trial.

The indictments and convictions of the robbery gang came largely on the testimony of O'Keefe, who turned state's evidence, and asserted the others in the gang cut him out of his share. O'Keefe is now free.

The long delay in splitting the reward money was due to the time it took to exhaust all possible appeals.

Only $56,000 of the loot ever was recovered.

Seven of the participants are serving life terms in Massachusetts State Prison.

UAR Sends Aid To Yemeni Rebels

Cairo, U.A.R. (UPI) — The United Arab Republic Thursday dispatched a ship-load of troops from Suez to the Red Sea to stand off the Yemeni coast with orders to help the week-old rebel Yemen government defend itself if necessary, informed sources said Thursday.

The troops will move immediately if Yemen calls for help against a possible attack by "counter-revolutionaries," these sources said.

There was no official confirmation of the report.

Earlier the United Arab airlines announced the cancellation of all flights to Saudi Arabia, apparently in fear its planes would be seized if they landed there.

No explanation for the cancellation was given but two Saudi transport planes have defected to the United Arab Republic in the past two days.

The two Saudi air force officers were cheered by crowds when they arrived at Cairo airport from Assam where they landed in their Saudi planes. They were invited to join the Egyptian air force.

(In Bonn, the Saudi Arabian Embassy said U.A.R. intelligence agents induced a Saudi pilot to defect to Egypt. The plane was en route from Jiddah to southern Saudi Arabia with military equipment when it went on to Cairo, the embassy said. The Egyptian "trick" was planned to give the false impression Saudi Arabia was interfering in Yemen "as an excuse for the criminal actions committed publicly by Cairo against the people of Yemen," the statement said.)

U.A.R. authorities said the two planes which landed at Aswam airport were carrying arms to followers of the deposed Yemen regime. The newspaper Al Ahram reported the airport was being kept open around the clock in anticipation of further defectors.

Yemen's radio Sanaa heard in Cairo said 4 former supporters of the deposed royal family had been executed, bringing to 21 the number shot by a firing squad since an army junta deposed and allegedly killed Imam Mohammed Al-Badr last week.

Galbraith, Wife Do The Bhangra

New Delhi, India (AP) — U.S. Ambassador John Kenneth Galbraith and his wife danced the vigorous Punjabi Bhangra dance Thursday, holding hands of turbaned, bearded Sikh dancers.

The occasion was a party the ambassador gave for 450 laborers who had just completed building the ambassador's residence next to the embassy.

Seeing Sikhs do the Bhangra Dance, the ambassador and his wife stepped in and danced with equal zest.

IAM Calls Off Strikes

Washington (UPI) — The International Association of Machinists Thursday night called off a strike against two Aerojet-General Corporation plants in California, and picketing in Cape Canaveral.

A joint announcement by the IAM and Aerojet said that a "preliminary understanding" was reached in negotiations before the Federal Mediation Service which will result in "immediate resumption" of work at all Aerojet facilities.

The action came shortly after a presidential commission urged the union to call off the strike in the national interest.

Aerojet manufacturers missile components. Both Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara had urged postponement of the strike on the ground that it would harm the nation's space program.

After a daylong meeting with federal mediators, representatives of the IAM in Sacramento and Azusa, Calif., issued a joint statement which said:

"A preliminary understanding has been reached which will result in immediate resumption of work at all Aerojet operations.

"At the meeting in Washington Thursday, it soon became apparent that unfortunate misunderstandings between the parties were the primary cause of the short work stoppage that has occurred.

"Negotiations will proceed in Washington to find an early settlement. In the interest of national defense and security, both parties agree that work will be resumed while remaining differences are being settled.

"In 20 years of the company's existence, this is the only serious disagreement between the parties, 15 of these years being under union shop provisions. The company wishes to state that it is proud of the skill and patriotism of its workers and regrets the misunderstandings for which it was responsible.

Both parties assure that production schedules vital to the nation's defense will be met.

William E. Simkin, director of the Federal Mediation Service, concurred in the joint announcement. The details of the "misunderstanding" were not disclosed.

Gov. Morrison Asks Federal Boxcar Help

Gov. Frank Morrison Thursday urged Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to assist Nebraska in its efforts to obtain more boxcars to handle the state's bumper milo and corn crops.

In a telegram to Freeman, Morrison described the boxcar situation in the state as "critical" with a bumper milo crop of 88 million bushels and a shortage of 1,000 cars on Burlington Railroad lines.

The situation will get "worse" in the next 10 days, Morrison said.

"Propose you contact C. D. Buford of the American Association of Railroads, Washington, D.C., to get reallocation of boxcars," Morrison wired Freeman.

"Burlington owns approximately 24,000 cars and now has only 19,000 available.

"I am certain you can appreciate necessity of handling grain at time of harvest," and "urgently request your assistance," Morrison concluded.

When you feed your hungry troops these rations you know they're well-fed. For Armour Star Franks rank just as high as T-bone steak in the 14 ways the U.S. Department of Agriculture measures the nutritive values of foods. This is because we make Armour Star Franks from select cuts of beef and pork—hearty meat—solid protein end to end. And to give them a flavor that most children like even better than steak, we season them with seven gentle spices. Next time your army lines up for chow, give them the mighty meat they love—Armour Star Franks.

JFK Orders Offensive Against Shipping Between Reds And Cuba

Washington (AP) — President Kennedy has ordered a 4-point U.S. economic-political offensive against shipping between Communist Bloc countries and Cuba.

High administration officials said Thursday the campaign designed to increase substantially the cost of delivery of Soviet goods to Cuba will be put into force in 10 days or two weeks.

A special interdepartmental task force has been set up to work out the necessary legal orders and determine exactly what steps to take. It is headed by Abram Chayes, legal adviser of the State Department. Consultations are under way with allied governments.

Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk have been under heavy political pressure to take further action against Fidel Castro's Cuba. It was obvious that the administration feels the forthcoming steps will be welcomed in Congress and across the country.

The planned action, on which the basic policy decision has already been made, will not affect shipping between Cuba and non-communist countries which are major suppliers of the Soviet-supported Castro regime. An attack on this aspect of the problem could come at a later stage with efforts to persuade countries like Britain, West Germany and Canada to discourage all kinds of sales to Cuba.

One effect of the program, officials conceded, will be to bar Soviet ships from U.S. ports. A vessel flying the Soviet flag seldom puts into an American harbor anyway, but the symbolic nature of the act may impress other countries with the seriousness with which the United States regards the Russian massing of arms in Cuba.

Complications would arise if Soviet Premier Khrushchev wanted to visit the United States on a Soviet ship, perhaps to attend the United Nations in November. But administration advisers said President Kennedy could always make a special exception in that or any other unusual occasion.

The 4 major policy lines worked out in the effort to crack down on Castro's supply line are these, as outlined by official sources which insisted on remaining anonymous:

1. Close all U.S. ports to all ships of any country "if any ship under the flag of that country hereafter carries arms to Cuba." Officials said this would strike only at Soviet shipping since only Soviet flag vessels carry arms to Cuba so far as they know.

2. Deny U.S. government cargoes or cargoes financed by the government to any foreign flag ship, the owners of which have any ship in the trade between the Communist Bloc and Cuba.

3. Bar U.S. flag ships and U.S.-owned ships from carrying goods to or from Cuba. Officials said there may be a few U.S.-owned vessels operated in the Cuban trade under Communist Bloc charter.

4. Close all U.S. ports to any ship which "on the same continuous voyage was used or is being used in bloc-Cuban trade."

Officials conceded that the total ban on shipping of any country delivering arms to Cuba in its own flag vessels would have no practical effect except as what one called "a clear warning for the future" to any non-communist country that might be tempted to get into the Cuban arms delivery business.

LATINS BACK DEMANDS OF U.S.

United Press International

Latin America backed the United States Thursday in demands that its allies crack down on Soviet-Cuban trade and the Soviet Union reacted with a warning that the free world is "playing with fire" in building a "cordon sanitaire" around the Caribbean dictatorship.

The joint U.S.-Latin American appeal was disclosed belatedly in Washington after the two-day informal conference of hemisphere foreign ministers on what to do about Fidel Castro.

All non-communist nations were urged to halt trade with Cuba as well as to deny their shipping for further Soviet use.

The new appeal had immediate repercussions. In London, the foreign ofifce said the British government is "considering" it, and that consultations will continue. In Athens, the Greek government urged shipowners to cancel Soviet-Cuban charter agreements.

New and stiff U.S. measures to curb Soviet cargoes to Cuba brought angry reaction from Moscow. The official Soviet Tass news agency accused the Central American republics "and certain other states" of preparing with the United States to set up a "cordon sanitaire" around Cuba.

Tass complained bitterly that the United States had brought "unprecedented" and "crude" pressure to bear on its Latin American neighbors. It said Washington "armtwisting" including "promises and invitations followed by threats."

Tass predicted that the agreements reached in Washington will be followed "by a whole series of new aggressive actions and provocations" against Cuba by the United States.

Commentator Igor Orlov said Cuba's communist allies will stand fast.

"Those who want to attack Cuba should not count on impunity," Tass said. "Playing with fire is an extremely dangerous occupation."

U.S. Gives Latins Grim Report On Trouble In Cuba

Washington (AP)—The United States has given Latin American governments a grim report of economic decay and increasing misery in Cuba under the Soviet-supported rule of Fidel Castro.

The report, based on intelligence information, was circulated by Secretary of State Dean Rusk to Central and South American foreign ministers attending the 20-nation conference here Tuesday and Wednesday.

By implication, at least, a spreading breakdown in agriculture, industry and essential health services was attributed to a combination of mismanagement by Fidel Castro, the inadequacy of Communist-Bloc supplies, and the limited embargo on U. S. trade with Cuba, as well as the drop in Cuba's other free-world commerce.

Mateos Attacks U.S. Cuba Stand

Mexico City (UPI) — President Adolfo Lopez Mateos said Thursday that no Latin American nation is "obligated" to aid the United States in enforcing the Monroe Doctrine, and that he does not consider Cuba to be a threat to hemisphere peace.

The President's views, outlined in a question-and-answer news conference with Mexican newsmen accompanying him on a 3-weeks state tour of the Far East, were the bluntest policy statements to emanate from Mexico in recent months.

Lopez Mateos said the Monroe Doctrine is a "unilateral declaration" by the United States and "implies no obligations for other American countries."

CADILLAC—A NEW STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE IN 1963

This is the look of leadership for 1963—bold new elegance of design and brilliant new excellence of craftsmanship.

More than one hundred and fifty major advancements embrace every aspect of exterior and interior styling . . . body construction . . . chassis design . . . and appointments. And the most improved engine in fourteen years resides beneath the sweeping expanse of hood. All this, together with a unique new true-center drive line, makes the 1963 Cadillac smoother, quieter and more efficient than ever.

There are twelve new models in 1963, including two dramatically styled coupes, the distinguished Sixty Special and the world-renowned Eldorado. Each has the widest choice of colors fabrics, leathers and options in Cadillac history.

There is a very easy, quick way to confirm all this. Visit your Authorized Cadillac Dealer for a firsthand inspection and for an hour behind the wheel. Why not do it before the week goes by? We know you'll agree that in 1963 Cadillac sets new standards of excellence.

Yugoslavia, Soviet On Friendly Terms

Belgrade, Yugoslavia (AP) — Yugoslavia and the Soviet Union publicly announced Thursday they are on friendly terms again but Marshal Tito stuck to his brand of independent communism. He gave no support to Moscow's idea of signing a separate peace treaty with East Germany.

A joint proclamation of "friendly relations and all-around" cooperation came in a communique concluding a 10-day goodwill visit of Soviet President Leonid I. Brezhnev. Tito, who broke with Stalin and has had touch-and-go dealings with Premier Khrushchev, made plain he still has no intention of being dictated to by Moscow.

Brezhnev's mission was depicted in the communique as being a success but it fell short of achieving a major aim—gaining Tito's support for the signing of a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany if the West refuses to bow to Soviet demands on making Berlin a "free" city.

Yugoslavia, while recognizing the East German regime, appeared standing fast on its position that a German peace treaty must be signed by all the World War II Allies. The joint Soviet-Yugoslav communique said settlement of the German question must recognize the "extences of two sovereign German states," but that was as far as it went.

The statement, signed by Tito and Brezhnev, went on to say only: "Both sides consider that the need has ripened that the vestiges of World War II should be done away with, that a peace treaty with Germany be signed and that the situation in West Berlin be normalized."

The terms for reaching such an agreement between the West and East blocs were not spelled out.

RADOMES RISE IN BRITAIN

Three radomes, each 140 feet in diameter, are nearing completion at a ballistic missile early warning station at Flyingdales, Yorkshire, England. The station is one of 3 in the British early warning system which operates in conjunction with the ballistic warning system of the United States.

Probe Ordered In Blast

New York (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Thursday ordered a state probe of the boiler explosion that took 21 lives and injured at least 100 in a telephone company building. He called the disaster "inconceivable" in this day and age.

The state investigation will bring to 5 the number of separate probes being conducted to learn what turned a low-pressure steam boiler into a one-ton missile that rocketed into a crowded basement lunchroom Wednesday.

Even as the wreckage was sifted in the telephone firm's accounting office, physicians at hospitals near the Upper Manhattan disaster site worked to save the lives of several of the seriously injured.

Investigators of the City Buildings Department, the Fire Department, the New York County District Attorney's office and the New York Telephone Co. each conducted investigations.

Held Without Bail

Teenage Molester Caught In Second Attempt On Boy

Police apprehended a 14-year-old boy who has admitted assaulting and molesting a 9-year-old boy Tuesday afternoon, at the sunken gardens at 27th and D.

The older boy had told the younger, during their first encounter, to return to the sunken gardens, and instructed him to bring some money.

The smaller boy did as told, but a police detective was there also, hiding behind some shrubbery. The detective apprehended the older boy as he again made advances to the 9-year-old.

The 14-year-old was taken to a detention home where he spent the night.

This same boy had previously been connected with the molest of two girls, one 9 and the other 6 years of age.

Art, Architects, Football And Such

You never can tell from one day to the next what is going to happen—or, for that matter, what isn't going to happen—or, if what isn't going to happen IS going to happen. Confused? So were we.

Here is the story. Just yesterday we announced, per request from the Nebraska Art Association, that the Art Association dinner planned for Monday evening had been indefinitely postponed. The honored guest, Philip Johnson, who was the architect for the Sheldon Memorial Art Museum, could not be present due to some conflicting engagements. The conflicting engagement, we understand, had to do with Nelson Rockefeller and a new building which we consider as logical and as important a conflict that any architect could have.

But this morning, also at the request of the Nebraska Art Association, we are announcing that the Art Association IS having a dinner, and Mr. Johnson will be there. Only the date and the place have been changed. The dinner is to be held on Sunday evening, Oct. 7, at the Lincoln Country Club.

* * *

That ends our chapter on the Art Association and Mr. Johnson—at least for the moment—so we'll go on to other activities—

The Cotillion Club had its annual dinner and business meeting on Wednesday evening at the University Club—The business, of course, was to name new officers and elect new members.

Since the secretary-treasurer couple usually moves from the pen and petty cash department to the gavel section it came as no surprise that Mr. and Mrs. John Angle will do the honors as president for the 1962-63 season. Named to fill the post of secretary - treasurer were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simon.

Interest in Cotillion Club affairs always revolves around the new members, and those elected to membership at the Wednesday night meeting include:

Dr. and Mrs. Max Corey, Mr. and Mrs. Don Etmund, Mr. and Mrs. James Lantz, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Ludwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Maly, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. (Ky) Rohman, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Bus Whitehead and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright.

* * *

Now to a game called football and its social angles.

We already have mentioned some of the pre-game and post-game parties for Saturday's game, but this morning we learned that Saturday, Oct. 13, also is to be a popular day for entertaining.

It will be on the thirteenth that Mr. and Mrs. James MacLean will entertain a small group of guests when they are host and hostess at a pre-game luncheon at their home.

* * *

And on the same day, and also preceding the Nebraska-North Carolina State game, is the luncheon for which Mr. and Mrs. Dales Tinstman will be host and hostess when they entertain at their home.

* * *

Football does not have a complete monopoly on the news, however. Last evening was the dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Curtis D. Kimball were host and hostess at their home, honoring the new Junior League provisionals and their husbands. The guest list also included members of the Provisional committee, plus husbands — and officers of the Junior League who were accompanied by their husbands.

* * *

Back home, since a week ago, is Mrs. Thomas C. Woods. Mrs. Woods, if your memory serves you well, suffered a severe back injury, due to an accident, enroute to her summer home at Madeline Island early in the summer.

* * *

Just this moment had a communique from Notre Dame, Ind., and it told us that Miss Auralea Ann Sharrar, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Sharrar is on the Dean's list at St. Mary's College—"For exceptionally high scholarship in the second semester of the 1961-62 academic year"—says the communique.

Busy Calendar For Brides-Elect

Parties are filling the social calendar for Miss JoAnn Claire Goodwin, preceding her marriage on Oct. 20, to Willard Chris Beck, Jr.

The bride-to-be will be honored Friday evening when Mr. Beck's grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Brehm, will entertain feminine members of the family at her home. During the informal evening, a bridal shower will be presented to Miss Goodwin.

Mrs. Foster Converse will be a hostess at her home on Tuesday, Oct. 16, in courtesy to her niece. The guests have been invited to the Converse home for a dessert supper and bridal shower.

Miss Goodwin's future sister-in-law, Miss Connie Beck, was a hostess at her home on Thursday evening honoring the bride-elect, who was presented a miscellaneous shower during the party.

The wedding of Miss Goodwin and Mr. Beck will take place at 7 o'clock in the evening, Oct. 20, and the service will be solemnized at First-Plymouth Congregational Church.

Announcing plans this morning for her approaching wedding is Miss Linda Joyce Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sullivan, who will become the bride of Kenneth H. Longman, Jr., on Friday, Oct. 19.

The ceremony will be solemnized at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the Fairhill Presbyterian Church.

The maid of honor and Miss Sullivan's only attendant will be Miss Glenda Sue Parks.

Larry Kubick will serve Mr. Longman as best man, and seating the guests will be Robert Colin, Wayne Cisel, Tom Gross and Bob Ring, Jr.

In prenuptial courtesy to Miss Sullivan, Miss Glenda Sue Parks will be a hostess Friday evening at her home at a miscellaneous shower.

Saturday evening, the bride-elect will be presented a shower at a dessert supper for which Mrs. B. E. Thompson and Mrs. John George will be co-hostesses. The party will be held at the home of Miss Sullivan.

Entertaining at a bridal shower for Miss Sullivan next Tuesday evening will be Miss Judy Carr and Miss Sheri Rickabaugh who will entertain a group of guests at the home of Miss Carr.

Revealing plans this morning for a late October wedding is Miss Rosalie Mary Jirsa, who has chosen Sunday, Oct. 28, as the date for her marriage to James Dale Surber of Friend.

Attending her sister as maid of honor will be Miss Blanche Jirsa of Friend, and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. Duane Lemburg, Stillwater, Okla., and Miss Joan Surber of Friend, sister of Miss Jirsa's fiance. Miss Linda Weber, Friend, will be the flower girl, and ringbearer will be Marty Weber.

Miss Esther Korinek, Friend, and Miss Judy Loreman, Stromsburg, will light the candles for the 6:30 o'clock evening service, which will be solemnized at the First Congregational Church in Friend.

Serving his cousin as best man will be William Surber of Omaha, and the ushers will be Frank Surber, Omaha; James Taylor, John Korinek and David Petersen, Friend.

FUN NEWS IN SUBURBIA

MEADOW LANE

It's coffee time this morning at the home of Mrs. Jerome Fleck who is entertaining her neighbors at a coffee to "formally" welcome four new residents to Meadow Lane.

Being given the special welcome are Mrs. Joseph Tresnak, Mrs. James Carleton, Mrs. Frank Watts, and Mrs. Jerry Salber.

Another newcomer to Meadow Lane is four day-old Jennifer Lyn Krohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krohn. Grandparents of the new baby are Mr. and Mrs. George Oxley of Papillion and Emil Krohn of Omaha.

Jenifer Lyn has one brother and two sisters, Barry, Lisa, and Jill.

Resting after a busy weekend of entertaining are Mr. and Mrs. John Brown. Last Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Brown's sons, John Robert and Joe, made their confirmation at St. John's, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown entertained before and after the ceremony.

Dinner guests before the confirmation were the boys' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Briard of Fremont. Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. Robert Jenson, whose son, Joey, also was confirmed, co-hosted at a small party for their sons and members of the families.

On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Brown of Ceresco, Mr. Brown's parents, were guests for dinner and for young Joe's Little League football game.

Leaving yesterday for their home in Lafayette, Ind., via a stopover in Des Moines, Iowa, were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Lemme, recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lemme.

Mr. Lemme's brother and sister-in-law spent a week in Meadow Lane with the Robert Lemmes and their daughter Dianne.

Former neighbors of Mrs. Nelson J. Shimonek were entertained at a small luncheon at the Shimonek home in Meadow Lane last Wednesday.

Mrs. Shimonek's guests at the "reunion" included Mrs. Robert Prucha and daughters Jane and Lisa; Mrs. Willard Fry and son Kevin, and Mrs. Joseph Ineck.

A Mexican pinata party was the mode of celebration for Debra Thompson's eighth birthday. Debra, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. W. P. Thompson, and nine neighborhood friends were seen welding the large stick and hoping to release the pinata's tasty surprises.

The Mexican theme of the party was also carried out in the refreshments, games, and favors.

PARK VALLEY

Mrs. Glen E. Herbert will entertain neighborhood bridge players this evening at the Park Valley Bridge Club's monthly gathering.

The eight ladies will be on hand at eight o'clock for dessert and bridge.

Expected sometime this weekend at the Ray Mathis home are Mr. Mathis' brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mathis and daughters, Diana and Dena.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathis will spend several days in Lincoln before returning to their home in Kettle Falls, Wash.

EASTBOROUGH

Leaving Eastborough yesterday after his first Lincoln visit in seven years was Donald T. Lehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lehr, and his wife Aiko. For Mrs. Lehr, a native of Japan, it was a first Lincoln visit.

Returning to the states as civilians after eight years in the Air Force, Mr. and Mrs. Lehr will make their new home in Santa Monica, Calif.

Mrs. Jack A. Carey will be leaving Sunday for five days in the sunny state of Florida. Mrs. Carey is a Nebraska delegate to the American Dietetic Association's annual convention to be held in Miami.

Arriving tomorrow for the Nebraska-Iowa football game will be Mr. and Mrs. William Felton of Omaha who will be the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Bosley Jr.

After the game, Mr. and Mrs. Bosley will entertain their guests at a small party at their home.

And more football guests are expected in Eastborough! Three Omaha couples will make the drive to Lincoln for the game and the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Judson N. McDougall.

And there are bridge players in Eastborough! Eastborough's weekly bridge players met at the home of Mrs. Dale West last Monday evening for their regular bridge game and dessert.

Mrs. Gay Timblin will be hostess to the group next Monday evening.

CHATTER —in the— CORRIDOR

By SANDIE LAW

Congratulations, Coach Bauer and team, for taking the City Title last Friday with a 13-0 victory over Lincoln High! Tonight our team travels to Beatrice, and the game co-captains are Jake Lee and Ray Nielson. Good luck and bring home another victory!

Lincoln Northeast is proud to say that Louise Ellis and Steve Hamilton are our National Merit Semi-Finalists. Congrats!

Nancy Wolf, junior at LNE, is the winner of the Miss Teen-age of America contest. She won an all-expense trip to Dallas, Texas October 26 where she will compete for a $16,000 college scholarship and other prizes in the national contest. LNE sophomore, Sandy Gerlach placed third and senior Linda Mahoney placed fourth.

On Sept. 26, eight junior girls out of 17 were chosen for Reserve Cheerleader. At 3:10 that day, Sandy Betts, Susie Bornemeier, Pat Guidenger, Marilyn Kelle, Diane Knutson, Carrie Kulla, Marlys Madden, and Cathy Ritter received pink call slips from the office letting them know that they were chosen.

Class officers were named on Monday, Oct. 1. For the seniors, Les Tyrrell is president; Gail Jeffery, vice-president; Greg Kemist, secretary, and Lois Dappen, treasurer. The juniors selected as president, Dennis Bargman; vice-president, Terry Monk; secretary, Pat Guidenger, and treasurer, Susie Bornemeier. Best wishes, and I know you'll do a good job.

Also chosen last week were the members of the cast for the all-school play "Anastasia". The cast includes: Sleigh driver, a loyal blind friend of Anastasia, Steve Lawson; Counsellor Drivinitz, seeker of Anna's true identity, Larry Johnson; Varya, a maid in Prince Bounine home, Judy Stansbury; Dowager Empress, the shrewd grandmother of Anastasia, Linda Metcalf; Prince Bounine, a greedy, self-centered, and plotting young man, Larry Schneider; Prince Paul, the childhood sweetheart of Anastasia, Doug Hill; Anastasia, Dorothy Peterson; Petrouin, the plotting Russian artist, Bruce Borin; Baroness Livenboum, companion of Empress, Jennifer Marshall; Sergie, the chauffer for Prince Bounine, Bob Meyers; and the charwoman, the kind old friend of Anastasia, Bobbi Kierstead. The play will be presented on November 9 and 10.

Square Dances

Lincoln square dance clubs planning parties for this weekend include the Guys and Gals Club, whose members will meet Friday evening at the Antelope Park pavilion.

Also dancing Friday evening will be the members of the Westerners Club who will meet at Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Entertaining Saturday evening will be the Corral Club at the American Forward Hall, 8th and D, and the Joymakers Club at the Antelope Park pavilion.

DAR Chapter To See Films

When the members of Deborah Avery Chapter, DA, meet for luncheon at the Hotel Cornhusker on Friday, they will see a program of colored films on her recent travels to the Mediterranean and the Black Sea by Mrs. Joel E. McLafferty.

Mrs. Roscoe Abbot is hostess chairman for the luncheon, and assisting hostesses are Mrs. Adrian Driggs, Mrs. C. C. Cartney, Mrs. Roscoe Klein, Miss Jenny Piper, Mrs. Milton Anderson, Mrs. C. D. Cornell, Miss Rose Carson and Mrs. W. A. Bailey.

Sorority Guest Night

The members of Delta Kappa Gamma society for women educators will entertain at a guest night program Monday following a 6 o'clock dinner at the University of Nebraska Student Union.

Mrs. Viola Houdek is chairman for the program on "Modern Women Leaders and their contributions." Participating in the program will be Miss Betty Elmen, Miss Belle Farman, Miss Gertrude McEachen and Mrs. Rodney Schuman.

To Entertain

Mrs. E. Ross Martin will be hostess on Tuesday to the members of the Tuesday Review Club. The group will meet for a 10:30 o'clock guest coffee.

Why Grow Old?

Some Figure Talk

Josephine Lowman

Lie on the floor and bend up like this to touch your toes in order to keep abdominal muscles firm. It is one of the exercises in Josephine Lowman's free leaflet offered today.

Q. "I am 11 years old and am starting the seventh grade this fall. All my friends say I am skinny, but my family says I am just little. Could you give me some exercises for developing my bust and hips? My measurements are bust 29 inches, waist 23 and hips 28½. I still have a baby stomach which I try to hold in."

A. Don't worry about the bustline. Nature will give you those curves a bit later on and also will slim down the tummy. However, you are wise to make an effort to hold your abdomen in and to be interested in posture. This and Father Time will assure you a lovely figure later on.

You might take some abdominal exercises to help you hold the tummy in. If you or any of my readers would like to have those I have used in my classes with great success, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 2. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Q. "A reader wants to know if there is any treatment for a person who is not alert and who is tired and depressed. She is just out of high school and has an average I.Q. People do not think she hears what they say when they talk to her. She wants to change and says that she will take any test to help her improve."

A. The fact this girl realizes that she is not as she should be and wants to be is certainly a very hopeful sign. She should see her family doctor for a complete physical check-up. Many physical conditions which can be remedied can cause such a condition. She should develop some interests, join young people in church groups and maybe join some class at the Y.W.C.A. Perhaps a class in some handicraft would be rewarding. I have the feeling that this young lady is living too much within herself and does not have enough companionship with those her own age.

Dear Abby

'Dreamy' Statistics Not True

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: For 10 years I have been trying to convince my wife that it is her duty to get up in the morning and prepare breakfast for me. She doesn't have to go to work, so if she went back to bed afterwards it would be all right with me. She tells me that I am behind-the-times and that 98% of the wives sleep in the morning and their husbands either get their own breakfast or go out and buy it somewhere. Can you tell me if this is correct? I would like to know approximately how many wives in our nation still get up in the morning to prepare a decent breakfast for their families?

NO BREAKFAST

DEAR NO: Your wife must have "dreamed" those statistics. I am willing to bet that at least 75% of our wives have the coffee perking at 7:30 A.M. How about it, girls?

DEAR ABBY: A teacher in our school has started the "Honor System." During tests she leaves the room and the students are on their "honor." I do not cheat, but several of the others do. They look up the answers and copy them straight out of the book. Consequently they make better grades than I do. What is your opinion of our "honor system"?

HONEST

DEAR HONEST: I think the teacher has the honor and the kids have the system. Tell your teacher to take off the rose-colored glasses. The system is not working.

DEAR ABB: My husband works the second shift, which means he leaves home at 2:30 in the afternoon and comes home after midnight.

By the time he wakes up in the morning, the children are gone to school. He doesn't even know he has a family. I have all the decisions to make and all the discipline problems. I am fed up with the full responsibility. Don't tell me he is earning a living for "his family." He has plenty of seniority where he works and could get the first shift by asking for it. What do you think I should do?

FED UP TO HERE

DEAR FED UP: I think you should tell your husband what you have told me. Unless you have already told him so many times that he thinks you're kidding.

DEAR ABBY: I was very disappointed in the poor judgment you showed in publishing the letter signed LIED ABOUT. It was from a 17-year-old complaining because a friend went to confession and made up horrid lies involving him (or her). Anyone who knows anything about the Catholic religion knows that no names are mentioned in confession, and if anyone attempts to involve a third party by name, he is stopped immediately by the priest and is reprimanded. Please, Abby, print my letter to correct an unjust misconception.

A CATHOLIC

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a young woman who, within 30 minutes after being introduced to a young man, asks him his religion, whether he believes in a "double standard" and if he thinks a wife should work?

WILLIAM

DEAR WILLIAM: The young man should reply, "I'm an atheist, the double standard is standard operating procedure for me, and what else are wives good for?

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Bridge

Over The Redouble

B. Jay Becker

QUIZ

You are South, both sides vulnerable. The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 ♥	Dble	Redble	?

What would you now bid with each of the following six hands?

1. ♠942 ♥J83 ♦62 ♣KJ954
2. ♠Q752 ♥96432 ♦53 ♣84
3. ♠874 ♥J5 ♦Q962 ♣Q753
4. ♠QJ863 ♥A95 ♦K74 ♣82
5. ♠J82 ♥QJ95 ♦Q73 ♣K85
6. ♠QJ97432 ♥8 ♦J64 ♣73

1. Two clubs. First, let's agree that you're not required to bid in this sequence unless you have a message to deliver and there is good reason to do so at this point. A pass of the redouble, for example, would not necessarily indicate either strength or weakness. It would merely show that there is no convenient bid.

Two clubs is best in this case because it describes the hand fairly well, and, moreover, may help partner choose an opening lead in case West becomes declarer. The chances are that East-West will wind up playing the hand.

2. One spade. This is a dreadful hand to have when partner is caught between two fires, but you try to minimize the danger by bidding a spade, even with the weak suit. There is too much risk, if you pass, that partner will bid two clubs or diamonds if you let the redouble come around to him. He may have three spades and bypass that suit in favor of two clubs or diamonds. You bid to keep him out of trouble.

3. Pass. Here you pass because there is no reason to bid. You let partner choose the suit.

4. Two spades. This time you not only want to show your suit, but also that you have real values. The jump response in this sequence shows interest in game, but is not forcing. If partner raises to three spades, you go on to game.

5. One notrump. This is not a weakness bid, though the hand need not be quite as strong as this one. You're not supposed to undertake a notrump contract with a weak hand. The purpose of the notrump call is to tell partner you have scattered strength and, of course, at least one heart stopper. It is meant to encourage him to contest further with a long suit if he has one, or raise in notrump with a balanced hand and extra values beyond the double.

6. Three spades. This is a preemptive bid, pure and simple. The strength-showing bid would be two spades, not three. There are two reasons for the bid. First, the jump to three spades cramps the bidding and may lead the opponents to the wrong contract. Second, the preempt might pave the way to a worthwhile sacrifice against an adverse game contract.

DAZZLING DEXOL BLEACH DRENCHES YOUR CLOTHES WITH LIGHT
washes in the brightness and whiteness liquid chlorine bleaches wash away!

What makes brand-new clothes so bright? Fluorescers — tiny particles that reflect light like a million mirrors. Liquid chlorine bleaches destroy many of these fluorescers, yellowing new whites, fading deep colors. ■ But Dexol is different! Instead of destroying fluorescers — Dexol actually contains its own fluorescers that brighten clothes a little bit more with every washing. Whites become whiter than new, colors get brighter and brighter when you let dazzling Dexol drench them with brilliance. And Dexol's fluorescers work on any fabric—cottons, linens, woolens, synthetics—even the silks you never dared bleach before. Because Dexol is safe—safe for all colors, for all your washable fabrics. ■ Make Dexol a washday habit; it's the bright way to bleach.

Who's Got A Defense?

Defense, which many Nebraska fans came to despise with a passion when the word was mentioned in connection with football, could look pretty good to them tomorrow.

Both the Cornhuskers and the Iowa State Cyclones have potent offenses. Nebraska leads the Big 8 with 796 yards, Iowa State is 3rd with 582 yards.

These figures indicate both clubs can move the ball, thus both clubs have the ability to score.

So chances are the outcome of the first Big 8 test for each will hinge on who can stop the other best—that's defense, and the Huskers are going to need all they can muster to halt Dave Hoppmann and Co.

Nebraska is favored to win—primarily because of last year's 16-13 victory and the upset over Michigan—which gives the psychological advantage to Iowa State. But if the Cornhuskers are going to become a consistent football team they'll have to win as favorites, not just when they're underdogs.

Last week this corner tabbed 25 of 35 games correctly for a .714 mark, bringing the season average to .705. My guess on the Cornhuskers: NEBRASKA 20, IOWA STATE 14, and regardless of the score, one of the finest Big 8 contests of the season.

By OSCAR FRALEY

San Francisco (UPI) — "Glove-man" Cletis Boyer made up for two years of disappointment Thursday when his first World Series home run led the New York Yankees to a 6-2 opening-game victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The lean man from Missouri, more noted as a defensive 3rd baseman than as a hitter, two years ago was jerked from his first Series game for a pinch-hitter before he even got to make his first appearance at the plate against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

But on this bright, sunny day when the underdog Giants were muting the thunder of more famous Yankee home run bats, Boyer was the man with the winning wood. It was all tied up at 2-2 when he electrified the huge park which squats like a concrete cruller on the shores of San Francisco Bay with a solo 7th-inning homer.

CAMPING AT PARK . . . Giants fans spend night at Candlestick Park.

Ford Sets Record

Then he drove in one of 3 insurance runs which swept oft-staggering Whitey Ford to a record 10th World Series pitching triumph against 4 setbacks. The little bread-and-butter pitcher of the Yankees gave up 10 hits but an air-tight defense bailed him out of several jams and he went all the way.

Even in the 9th, when the Giants led off with a single, it was Boyer who rode to the rescue. For he started a double play which wrecked any further hopes of those ever-battling Giants, who Wednesday came from behind with 4 runs in the 9th to win the National League pennant.

Billy O'Dell, a fugitive from the American League who long has known about the power in those Yankee bats, gave it a game try. But while he checked mighty Mickey Mantle without a hit in 4 trips, and was saved from a Roger Maris home run on a leaping stab by Felipe Alou, he yielded 9 of the Yankee hits and 5 runs in 7 1-3 innings to absorb the defeat.

Yanks Score Early

The well-rested Yankees, who sat by idly while the Giants finally bested Los Angeles in an exhausting 3-game battle for the National League flag, opened up in the very first inning as if they were going to make a runaway of the game.

With one out, Bobby Richardson and Tom Tresh nubbed back-to-back singles over the infield. Mantle struck out but then Maris tagged a whistling line drive which appeared destined to clear the fence in right field. However, Alou made a leaping one-handed stab right up against that 10-foot wire fence and knocked the ball back onto the playing field.

Maris had to settle for a double while Frankie Crosetti, coaching at 3rd base on his 52nd birthday and in his 21st World Series, waved Richardson and Tresh in to score. There was no question but what Alou had robbed Maris of a homer and prevented the Yankees from scoring another run.

Thus the Giants were able to tie it up when they pushed across a run in the second and another in the 3rd.

Ford Extends Streak

Ford had run his consecutive scoreless innings in World Series play to 33 by setting the Giants down in order in the first inning.

But the Giants snapped the chunky little blond's record string in the second. Willie Mays, who sparked those comeback Giants to the pennant, led off with a single. After Orlando Cepeda struck out, Jim Davenport singled and Mays fled all the way to 3rd. Ford got Ed Bailey to pop up but Jose Pagan laid down a perfect bunt along the 3rd base line to send Mays racing across the plate.

The Giants rammed across another run in the 3rd and it became a new ball game at 2-2. Chuck Hiller doubled to left center with one out and then stormed into 3rd on a single by Alou. Up came Mays again, and he singled cleanly to center to score Hiller. The threat ended when Cepeda hit into a double play.

Then, after they battled through 3 more scoreless innings, Boyer stepped into the picture.

Two years ago against the Pirates, and with his whole family in attendance at Forbes Field to see him face Pittsburgh in his first series game, Boyer was lifted from the lineup before he could get to bat.

Boyer Disappointed

In that game the Pirates grabbed a 3-1 lead before Boyer, then the 7th man in the Yankee order, could get up. So Casey Stengel, then the Yankee manager, lifted him with two men on base and tears coursed down Boyer's face when he stalked with bowed head to the locker room.

But Thursday, batting 8th, an even more lowly position, Boyer got even.

It wasn't a blast such as you would expect fro ma Mantle or a Maris, barely clearing the left centerfield fence at the 360-foot mark.

Yet it blinked just as brightly on the scoreboard as any 500-foot "tape measure" blast by the exalted "M and M" twins.

The Yankees added their padding with two runs in the 8th and one more in the 9th, knowing full well the reputation of these Giants to come from behind and pull it out when all hope seems lost.

Long Drives In Run

In the 8th, with one out, Maris singled to right and went to second when O'Dell hit Elston Howard with a pitch. Dale Long, who subbed at first for Bill Skowron after the muscular Moose hurt his back, then singled to right to score Maris and move Howard along to 3rd.

That's when O'Dell took the long trip to the showers and was relieved by Don Larsen, who once in days gone by pitched the first perfect game in World Series history for the very same team he now faced.

And Boyer was the first man to greet him, lofting a sacrifice fly to left field.

Like his home run, it wasn't too long. Jose Pagan went back and took it away from the onrushing Harvey Kuenn, and fired a strike straight to the plate in front of the charging Howard. But the ball took a high hop and Howard, crashing into catcher Ed Bailey, knocked it out of his hands.

The run, as in the case of Boyer's homer, was just as good as one delivered on a clean hit.

Yanks Add Final Run

The Yankees added their final run in the 9th after Tom Tresh, the rookie star son of former major league catcher Mike Tresh, singled with out out. That was all for Larsen, who must have memories of better days when those big Yankee batsmen were on his side, and Stu Miller came on to take up the pitching hod.

Miller got Mantle on a fly ball but then, after Tresh stole second and they walked the menacing Maris, Howard singled to right to send Tresh winging across the plate.

For the Yankees today it will be lean, fireballing Ralph Terry, who won 23 games this season against 12 losses. Going for the Giants as they try to square it up before leaving their home grounds, it will be 24-game winner Jack Sanford, who lost only 7 games this season.

Stuewe, Theisen Remain Doubtful

By DON BRYANT
Star Sports Editor

Dennis Stuewe and Dave Theisen were still in the doubtful class Thursday afternoon as the Nebraska Cornhuskers wound up heavy preparations for the Iowa State Cyclones.

Stuewe, the Huskers' top rusher with 77 yards in 7 carries, tested his ankle and a new pair of high top shoes but he still wasn't running at full speed.

Theisen, No. 1 left halfback at the start of the season, is still hobbled by a leg injury. Neither was in pads Thursday.

"Physically, we're going to need both Dave and Dennis if we hope to be at full strength," Coach Bob Devaney said, admitting that it was doubtful either would be ready for the Cyclones.

"Actually, we're in somewhat the same position we were in before the Michigan game," Bob said. "We had Stuewe and Theisen, but we didn't expect to have Bill Thornton, who really counted as two people — one, his physical ability and two, the psychological lift he gave the team. This week we have Thornton, but we probably won't have Stuewe and Theisen."

Kicking Stressed

Devaney ordered extra work on PAT kicking, punting and kick coverage and protection Thursday.

Punters were Dennis Claridge, Jim Baffico and Chuck Doepke, while the coaches took extra effort with Baffico John Faiman, Tom Ernst, Rudy Johnson, Curtis Bryan and Thornton in the place-kicking drills.

Nebraska has registered 6 of 10 place kicks in PAT tries during the South Dakota and Michigan games. Baffico is 4 for 6, while Faiman is 2 for 3 and Ernst 0 for 1.

Three Deep

This is the way the Cornhuskers top 3 teams lined up Thursday:

Centers—Ron Michka, Jim Baffico, Don Stevenson.
Right guards—Bob Brown, Gary Toogood, John McCermott.
Right tackles—Lloyd Voss, Al Fischer, Ron Griesse.
Right ends—Dick Callahan, Jim Huge, Bill Comstock.
Quarterbacks—Dennis Claridge, John Faiman and Doug Tucker or Ernie Bonistall.
Left halfbacks—Warren Powers, Willie Ross, John Vujevich.
Right halfbacks—Rudy Johnson, Kent McCloughan, Willie Paschall.
Fullbacks—Bill Thornton, Gene Young, Joe McNulty.

Light Drill

The Huskers will hold only a loosening up drill at Memorial Stadium this afternoon.

Iowa State is slated to fly into Lincoln about 3 p.m., but the Cyclones won't work out here.

Workmen Thursday evening put down the field cover, just in case of rain.

Willie, Wind Get In Whitey's Hair

San Francisco (UPI)—Not only Willie Mays, but also the wind got into Whitey Ford's hair Thursday, said the Yankee southpaw with a laugh, adding he'll take the victory gladly even though he "didn't pitch especially good."

Ford, always one to call a spade a spade, admitted his 10-hit, 6-2 triumph over the Giants definitely "was not one of my better games."

Elston Howard, his batterymate, agreed with Whitey but blamed it entirely on the wind at Candlestick Park.

"That wind worked hell with Whitey's curve ball," Howard declared. "It fouls you up at bat, too. You can hit a ball good into the wind and it doesn't go anywhere."

Same As Expected

The Giants proved to be more or less what Ford expected, said the veteran little southpaw.

"I knew Willie could hit," he grinned, referring to the 3 straight hits Mays collected off him. "I faced him in All-Star competition before and he hit me pretty good."

Mays racked Ford for 6 hits in 7 tries during All-Star games, so Whitey wasn't exactly startled by his performance against him Thursday.

Principally, though, the wind bothered him more than Mays did.

"A left-hander's curve balls are no good in this park," he said, sipping beer from a can. "The wind blows in from right field and it takes all the stuff off a curve ball."

Ford finally retired Mays on his 4th time up, striking him out on a fast ball to lead off the 8th inning.

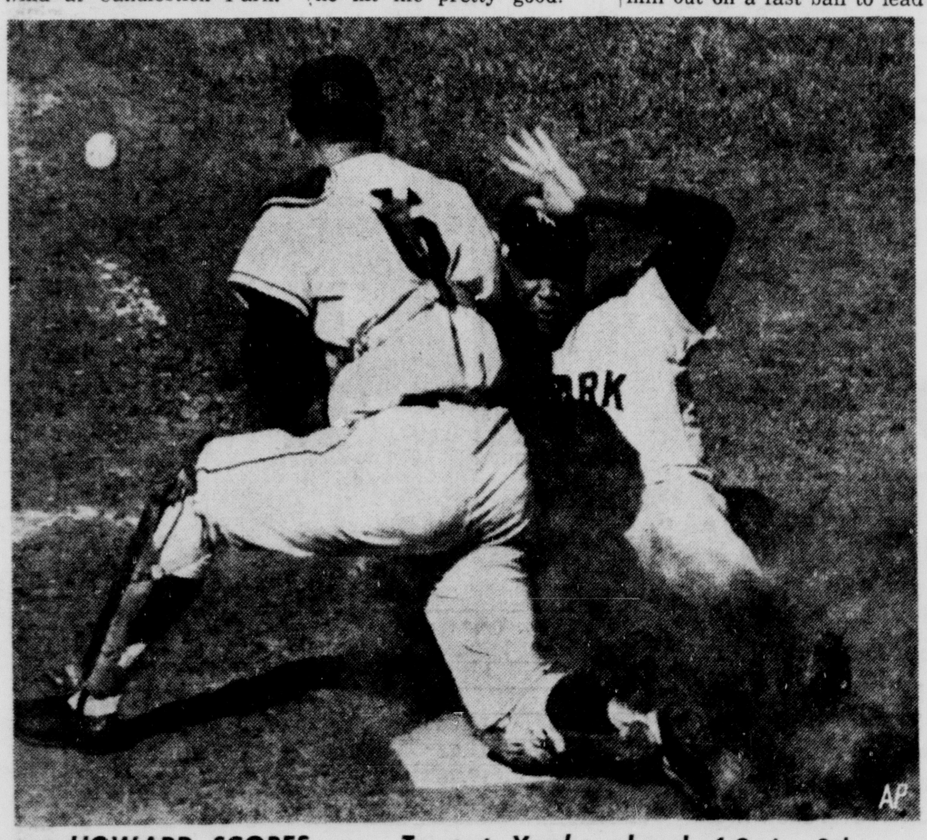

Like Ford, Howard also talked mostly about the wind and said he was "surprised" that Clete Boyer's 7th inning belt cleared the left field fence for a home run.

"I thought it was going to be only a double myself," Boyer admitted. "I didn't think it was going over the fence, either.

"I'm not sure what kind of a pitch it was," he added. "All I know is that it was below the belt. I wasn't shooting for a homer; all I wanted to do was get a base hit."

Manager Ralph Houk, who had predicted even before the World Series started that the Yankees would win, took their first triumph against the Giants more or less as a matter of course.

"Ford pitched a helluva ball game," he said (even though Whitey didn't think so) "and the key blows were (Roger) Maris' double in the first inning and Boyer's home run."

HOWARD SCORES . . . To put Yanks ahead 4-2 in 8th.

Winds May Blow Hard Today At Candlestick Park

San Francisco (UPI)—Brisk winds were forecast Thursday by the weather bureau for Friday's second game of the World Series between the Giants and Yankees.

The weather bureau predicted westerly winds ranging from 14 to 28 miles an hour for today. The bureau also forecast clear skies with a temperature high of 76.

The forecast indicated the winds for the second game might be even stronger than those during Thursday's opening game.

O'Malley Watches First Series Game

San Francisco, (AP) —Owner Walter O'Malley of the Los Angeles Dodgers, managing a cheery smile after a disastrous playoff defeat, attended Thursday's World Series opener with 60 of his Dodger employes as his guests.

"You all worked real hard," O'Malley told his employes. "Let's go up and see the ball game."

Cost Of LA Failure Figured At $4.5 Million

Los Angeles (AP) — Los Angeles businesses may have lost as much as $4.5 million because the Dodgers didn't get into the World Series, the chamber of commerce estimated Thursday.

The chamber said hotels, restaurants and other businesses made about $3 million during the 3 World Series games the Dodgers played here in 1959. But the figure was expected to be higher this year because prices are up and 4 Series games might have been played here instead of 3.

Coffee Break Wins

Lexington, Ky. (AP) — Coffee Break avenged his defeat in the Little Brown Jug by turning in the fastest raced mile of the current Lexington Trots meeting to win the $8,700 Poplar Hill Farm pace in straight heats Thursday.

Alcatraz Inmates Listen To Series

San Francisco, (AP) —Thursday's first game of the World Series at Candlestick Park disrupted the daily routine at Alcatraz federal prison in San Francisco Bay.

Warden Olin G. Blackwell said about 200 of the island prison's 250 inmates chose to stay in their cells to listen to the Giants-Yankees game.

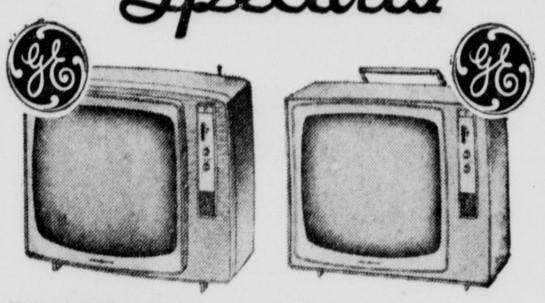

The prison shops were operated by a few non-sports fans.

Giants Will Not Be Counted Out

. . . DARK WARNS

San Frncisco (UPI) — That dull thud you just heard was the San Francisco Giants crashing back to reality but a grim-faced Alvin Dark refused to count his team out.

"This club has been bouncing back all year and losing this first game of the World Series doesn't mean a thing," Dark said in the subdued Giants' clubhouse just after the Yankees had ground out a routine 6-2 victory.

One thing was certain. Orlando Cepeda will not be in the lineup today when the Giants face the Yankees in the second game.

"Orlando is tired," Dark said of his burly first baseman who went hitless in 4 trips against Whitey Ford and stopped a 3rd-inning rally by grounding into a double play.

Played 260 Games

"He has played about 260 games this year, including winter ball. This is too much for anyone. It will be McCovey at first, Matty Alou in left field and Tom Haller catching."

All 3 are left-handed hitters who will be facing Yankee right-hander Ralph Terry.

Cepeda, cutting a pineapple into small chunks with a dangerous looking knife, shrugged when told that he would be benched today.

"I like to play," he said. "I'm not tired. I feel . . . well . . . so so, . . . the double play? I hit a curve ball."

Then he strolled away.

Mays Tired

Willie Mays made no secret that he is fatigued after the nerve-wracking playoff with Los Angeles for the pennant.

"Did you feel tense for this game?" Mays was asked.

"After that Los Angeles series, man, all the tense is out of me," said Willie who cracked Ford for 3 singles in 4 trips and now is 9 for 11 against the Yankee southpaw, including All-Star games.

"I think there is no doubt that the club is fatigued—but we're all doing our best. Look at (Billy) O'Dell. He's tired but he didn't gripe. He pitched real good.

"Me? I'm dead."

Hit Good Pitch

O'Dell, a loser in his World Series debut, said that Clete Boyer hit a "real good pitch" for the home run that sent the Yankees into a 3-2 lead.

"The pitch was a fast ball, low and away," the lantern-jawed southpaw said. "Boyer was a better hitter than the pitch."

Ole Miss Homecoming Will Not Be At Home

Oxford, Miss. (AP) — Acting on Army orders, the University of Mississippi Thursday moved its Saturday homecoming game with the University of Houston to Jackson to prevent further disorders as a result of Negro James H. Meredith's admittance to the Ole Miss campus.

The decision ended uncertainty as to whether the game between the Southeastern Conference power and Houston, an unbeaten independent, would be played.

Series Fails To Stir Frisco Fans

San Francisco (AP)— The World Series came to San Francisco for the first time in history Thursday, and about the only thing that got stirred up about it was the wind at Candlestick Park.

The big crowd at the game greeted the occasion with almost monumental calm, in marked contrast to the bedlam that gripped the town after Wednesday's San Francisco Giant victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the final National League playoff game.

You could almost feel the emotional letdown.

Even when the Giants tied the game at 2-2, the noise was considerably short of deafening, and Clete Boyer's home run for the Yankees, the eventual winning run, was as popular as Walter O'Malley in Brooklyn.

As the Yankees pulled away to the final 6-2 margin, a stranger could have been forgiven for thinking he had wandered into a late September game between the Chicago Cubs and the New York Mets.

Except that there was a full house. And it was mostly a business suit and sweater crowd. Many in the best seats looked as if they were out for an afternoon of stock ticker watching.

The women were chic, but many looked as if they weren't sure which team was which.

In that respect, it was a typical World Series opening day crowd of recent years, when the choice seats for the first game seem to emerge in the hands of many who seldom darken a baseball park during the regular season. The real fans get the tickets for the later games.

Links Reserves Win

Bob Knopp and Kent Radke each scored two touchdowns to lead the Lincoln High reserves to a 32-0 victory over the Boys Town reserves Thursday.

Racing Driver Fined For Off-Track Speed

Keokuk (AP) — Ramo Stott of Keokuk, widely known racing car driver, was fined $10 and costs Thursday for speeding on a highway near Keokuk.

Authorities said Stott was arrested for driving a truck 60 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Southeast, Pius Home Tonight

. . . BELLEVUE, HEELAN FOES

By CONDE SARGENT
Prep Sports Writer

There may be little joy in Darkhorse-Ville this weekend.

The state high school football slate has numerous Patterson-Liston mismatches.

State leader North Platte plays host to weak Alliance, for instance.

Then there's Lincoln Northeast at Beatrice, Bellevue at Lincoln Southeast, Omaha Benson at Fremont, Omaha North at Omaha Westside in Class A and Columbus St. Bonavenutre at Fremont Bergan, David City Aquinas at Hastings St. Cecilia, David City at Albion, Auburn at Ralston in Class B.

All visitors are heavily favored except Bellevue. Combined records of the favored teams in the mismatch group is 25-10 as compared to 7-25-3 for the underdogs.

All are Friday night frays. Fortunately there are some good matches.

Lincoln High's trip to Grand Island Friday is one. The Links, in a two-game losing streak after a great start, are ranked as underdogs to the Islanders. GI will be eying a second win over Capital City opposition, disposing of Northeast 6-0 two weeks ago.

No. 4 ranked Hastings, itching for a return go with North Platte, seriously begins its Big Ten East Division title defense at Columbus.

Columbus is tied with Grand Island for 5th in the ratings and must win to rate a shot at the title. Hastings is 1-0 in the loop already.

Hastings must win the East title to meet NP, West favorite, in a playoff.

In Class B the top match is No. 5 York hosting No. 6 Crete. Both teams are unbeaten and has flashed offensive power that may result in a basketball-score contest.

Lincoln Pius X may have its hands the fullest of anyone in the state. The Lincoln school, fighting to maintain a perfect record (the only one in town), plays host to Sioux City Heelan.

The visitors, an annual Pius X, foe, are among Iowa's top ten prep clubs.

All Lincoln teams will play Friday night with Seacrest Field dark for the first Saturday night since opening week.

Southeast's encounter with Bellevue Friday is the Seacrest game this week. The Knights are after a second straight victory.

Last week's topsy-turvy action resulted in just 22 games being called correctly. Eleven were missed with 3 ending in ties. The season percentage is 722 from 99-38-5.

This week's top games:

Southeast v. Bellevue at Seacrest (7:30 p.m.)—A second victory is just what Southeast needs.

Pius X v. Sioux City Heelan at Vap Stadium (8 p.m.)—Hard to go against Heelan's depth.

Northeast at Beatrice—Northeast machine gets oiling for upcoming Hastings' collision.

Hastings at Columbus—Coach Ollie Smith's Hastings club may not lose again.

Crete at York—Class B thriller. Favor York's experience and speed.

Upset of Week—Lincoln High over Grand Island. Links better win this one if they plan on Intercity first division.

Two Undefeated Teams Will Clash

Omaha—Two unbeaten football teams who have scored 187 points between them in rolling to identical 3-0 marks, clash at University Stadium here Saturday in what could be one of the top offensive games in OU stadium history.

Coach Al Caniglia's OU Indians, fresh from a 47-26 scalping of the Bradley Braves host aerial-minded Northern Illinois who dropped NE Missouri State 37-8 Saturday.

Th Indians have racked up 106 points, 1134 yards and 6.3 yards per play in bumping Bradley, Colorado State College (41-22) and Morningside (18-13).

The NI Huskies have dumped Whitewater Wisconsin State (17-0) and Winona (Minn.) State (27-0) in addition to NE Missouri.

PAIR WILL LEAD BOBCATS

Pat Hamm (left) of Wood River, Ill., and Ken Dostal, Scribner, Bobcat co-captains for Saturday night's Hastings-Peru State tilt in Peru's Oak Bowl. Peru will be seeking its first conference win of the season after playing Kearney to a 13-13 tie in last Saturday's NCC opener.

PERU WILL TEST HASTINGS

Peru — The Peru State Teachers College Bobcats will try to shake off the humbling effect of last week's 13-13 tie with Kearney State when they host Hastings College in a "must" Nebraska College Conference encounter Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in Peru's Oak Bowl.

Hastings College will bring their Broncos into Oak Bowl with a record of 3 wins and no losses. The Presbyterians have handled Colorado School of Mines, Nebraska Wesleyan, and Wayne State.

Their win over Wayne State has put them in position of being in a tie for the NCC lead with Doane College at the present time.

Last season the Bobcats had to go all out to whip Hastings 14-0 with a second half attack.

Nebraska Upland Game Season To Open Saturday

Nebraska's upland game season begins Saturday as the 22-day grouse season opens.

Hunting hours are from sunrise to sunset through Oct. 28. The daily bag limit is two, with a possession limit of 4. Open area is that portion of the state north and west of a line extending from the South Dakota-Nebraska state line south along U.S. Highway 81 to its junction with the Platte River, then westward along the north shore of the Platte and North Platte Rivers to the Wyoming-Nebraska line.

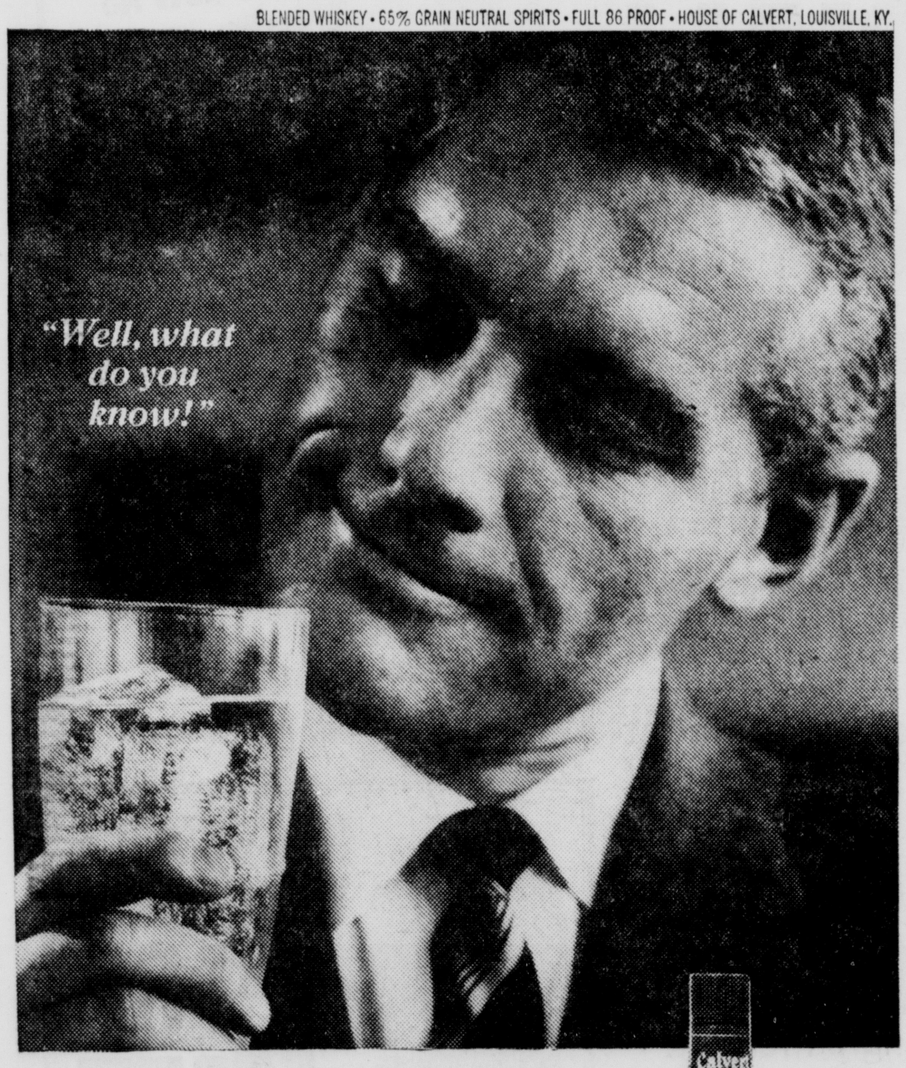

State Game Commission Director Melvin O. Steen said this year's grouse population is comparable to 1961's crop.

Why take a chance on having winter's icy fingers stop your engine cold, when Skelly again promises:

"You start or we pay... under Skelly's Bonded Starting Plan"

PAGE 1 from The 1962 Skelly "You Start" Coloring Book

THIS IS ME LAST WINTER. MY CAR WOULD NOT START. GRIND, GRIND, GRIND WENT THE STARTER. DEAD, DEAD, DEAD WENT THE BATTERY. I GOT COLD. I GOT UNHAPPY. COLOR ME BLUE.

THIS IS ME NEXT WINTER. MY CAR IS GOING TO START GOOD. THAT'S BECAUSE I SIGNED UP FOR THE SKELLY BONDED STARTING PLAN. I GOT SMART THIS YEAR. COLOR ME BRIGHT.

It's Easy To Get Your Skelly Bonded Starting Certificate

Just Bring Your Car In, And We'll Do These Things For You:

1 We test your battery to make sure it has deep-down wintertime starting power.

2 We drain your old motor oil and refill with Skelly Supreme or Skelly Fortified Tagolene HD for winter.

3 We check your radiator —including hoses and clamps—and test your anti-freeze.

4 We check your transmission and differential for safe, wintertime lubrication.

5 We fill your fuel tank with fast-starting, high-octane Skelly Keotane or Skelly Regular Gasoline.

Then, if your engine fails to start during the bonded starting period (anytime up to April 1, 1963) just call your Skelly Dealer or any reputable garage. Skelly will pay for the service call to get your car started, under the terms of the Skelly Bonded Starting Certificate—and send you a new Bonded Starting Certificate, too. See your Skelly Dealer for full details.

Diefenbaker Wins Vote Of Confidence

Ottawa (UPI) — Prime Minister John Diefenbaker won a major test of strength night when the Social Credit Party closed ranks behind the minority government to defeat a Liberal non-confidence motion.

The 140-118 vote in the House of Commons saw the Liberal Party of Lester B. Pearson aligned with the New Democratic Party (NDP) against Diefenbaker's Progressive Conservatives and the Social Credit party.

The vote was the second of the evening in which the Social Credit members backed the government.

Earlier, a sub-amendment of the non-confidence motion, introduced by the NDP, although backed by 100 Liberal votes, failed to win enough backing. This set the stage for the main motion which had been introduced to the House Monday by Liberal leader Pearson.

The results had not been unexpected. Before the balloting Social Credit leader Robert N. Thompson said his party would support the government.

The action was considered a possible indication of the voting trend in this 25th parliament where the delicate balance of power in favor of Diefenbaker is held by the Social Credits. Even if the NDP, and the Liberals stay together in future votes, Diefenbaker would stay in power with the help of the Social Credit support.

But even the opposition may not be able to depend upon solidarity in future voting.

COMMUTER'S NIGHTMARE

Twenty-three vehicles caught in a sudden fog bank on Route 93 near Wilmington, Mass., ground into each other Thursday. Six persons were taken to Winchester Hospital with various injuries. Police said the pileup came when the driver of the first car came upon a fog bank and suddenly applied the brakes.

LT&T EMPLOYE REWARDED FOR AN HEROIC FEAT

Lloyd H. Lane of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Co. has received the Frank H. Woods bronze medal and $250 for the May 28 rescue of Gary Wiles of Weeping Water from flood waters of Weeping Water Creek.

The presentation was made Monday by LT&T President Thomas C. Woods Jr. in recognition of "an act of extraordinary service that was not a part of assigned duties."

Lane, then stationed at Weeping Water, has since moved to Lincoln. He is the fifth LT&T employe to be cited since the awards were estbalished in 1958 as a memorial to the late Frank H. Woods founder of the company.

Old Post Office May Become Youth Center

North Platte (AP)—The North Platte City Council has decided to ask the General Services Administration to turn over North Platte's old post office to the city when the presently authorized new post office and federal building is completed.

The council would like to convert the old post office to a community youth center with a year-around program.

Corn To Tanganyika

Dar Es Salaam, Tanganyika (AP)—U.S. Ambassador William Leonhart presented to the Tanganyika government the first shipment—850 tons—of American corn to help alleviate hunger among more than half a million persons in this country.

Kammerlohr Tells Report On Studies Of Juvenile Laws

Assistant Atty. Gen. Mel Kammerlohr reported on his studies of problems relating to the Juvenile Court Act. He focussed on definitions, summonses, county probation, and the authority of the court to ask for psychological studies.

Kammerlohr reported to the steering committee of the legislative committee of the Nebraska Committee for Children and Youth, which is considering possible revisions of the juvenile court laws for submission to the 1963 legislature.

The steering group set Saturday, October 20, as the tentative date for its next meeting.

Reason To Believe Many Reds Left Laos

Washington (AP) — Authoritative American sources said Thursday there is reason to believe a considerable number of Communist North Vietnamese troops have pulled out of Laos under terms of the agreement to establish the neutrality of the little kingdom.

The sources would not give a number beyond estimating "some thousands" have recrossed the jungle frontier between Laos and North Viet Nam.

At the peak of the fighting between the communist-directed Pathet Lao and Royal government forces last spring, U.S. intelligence reports estimated 10,000 North Vietnamese troops were aiding the communist cause.

All foreign forces are due to be withdrawn from Laos by Sunday under terms of the 14-nation Geneva agreement.

U.S. authorities said a total of 665 American military advisers will have been withdrawn from Laos by the Sunday deadline. More than 550 of these have already left the country. At the peak of the fighting last spring, there were about 800 American advisers.

U.S. officials were not happy at the failure of communist troops to check out through the International Control Commission checkpoints, manned by Indian, Polish and Canadian supervisors and inspectors.

But they said the communist action will not create a crisis that threatens the entire Geneva accord neutralizing Laos.

But if it is determined after next Sunday that some Reds have remained in the country, it was said the issue will be taken up vigorously in at least four directions.

Complaints will be made to Premier Souvanna Phouma, who heads the new neutralist government, to the 3-nation international control commission, which is charged with supervising the withdrawal, and to Britain and the Soviet Union, who served as co-chairman of the 14-nation Geneva conference.

Lancaster County Team Gets Top Score In Land-Judging

A Lancaster County 4-H team posted the top score in the 4-H and FFA Area II Land Judging contest held here Thursday. Some 256 entrants made up the largest such event ever held, according to contest officials.

The Lancaster County team, which posted a 1,045 score out of a possible 1,200 points, included Dwayne Siekmann of Waverly, Tom Spilker of Lincoln, Bob Caster of Rt. 1, Lincoln, the 3 top placing 4-H individuals, and David Doeschot of Panama.

The first-place FFA team was from Nebraska City.

"The scores throughout the contest were the best we have ever had for a land juding event," said Emery Nelson, Lancaster county extension agent.

In the 4-H judging Butler County was second with Otoe County taking third-place honors.

Other high placing FFA teams were: Papillion, second; Lewiston, third, and Seward, fourth.

High individual honors among the FFA members went to Frank Selvy of Nebraska City, followed by Frank Peters of Papillion, second; Roger Smith of Lewiston, third, John Kruse of Seward, fourth, and Larry Marquius of David City, fifth.

LITTLE BOY GAVE AWAY DAD'S CASH

San Antonio, Tex. (AP) — Lusito Hernandez, 10, tearfully told Wednesday of passing out $50 bank notes, 13 of them, to friends.

"I thought they were play money," Luisito said.

The money was part of $3,000 paid to his father, Leonard, 35, after he lost an eye in a construction accident.

Luisito discovered the cash under a bed where Hernandez had hidden it. He told about it after his mother saw a $50 bill fall from his pocket.

Efforts to recover the money were unavailing.

ORDINANCE NO. 7894

AN ORDINANCE accepting and approving the plat of H & S Replat, an addition in the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, filed in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, on September 14, 1962, upon certain conditions herein specified and providing for a bond conditioned upon the strict compliance with such conditions.

WHEREAS, Marion L. Hanson and Gilbert G. Hanson, wife and husband, and Sarah J. Shaffer and Marvin E. Shaffer, wife and husband, owners of Block 26, and the vacated alley therein, Normal Additions, an addition located in the Southeast Quarter of Section 32, Township 10 North, Range 7 East of the Sixth PM, Lancaster County, Nebraska, having platted said real estate under the designation of H & S Replat and having filed said plat on September 14, 1962, with the City Clerk of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, with a request for approval and acceptance thereof in the manner and form as by ordinance required.

WHEREAS, it is for the convenience of the inhabitants of said City of Lincoln, Nebraska, and for the public that said plat be approved and accepted as filed.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE it Ordained by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska:

Section 1. That the plat of H & S Replat, filed in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, by Marion L. Hanson and Gilbert G. Hanson, wife and husband, and Sarah J. Shaffer and Marvin E. Shaffer, wife and husband, as owners on September 14, 1962, be and it hereby is approved and accepted and said owners be and they hereby are given the right to plat said H. & S Replat as an addition in the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, in accordance therewith.

Such acceptance and approval are conditioned upon the following conditions:

First: That the owners above set forth shall, at their own cost and expense construct sidewalks in the sidewalk spaces along the south side of Normal Boulevard between 55th and 56th Streets, along the north side of Myrtle Street between 55th and 56th Street, along the east side of 55th between Myrtle Street and Normal Boulevard, and along the west side of 56th between Myrtle Street and Normal Boulevard, all in accordance with the ordinances of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, relating to sidewalks. The construction of said sidewalks shall be completed not later than October 1, 1964.

Section 2. That the owners above set forth shall, prior to the passage of this ordinance, execute and deliver to the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, a bond in the sum of $2,000.00, which bond shall be approved by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, and shall be conditioned upon the strict compliance by the owners above named with the conditions contained in the paragraph designated "First" of the next preceding section of this ordinance; and further conditioned that in the event the above named owners fail to comply with the conditions herein set forth within the time specified in this ordinance, the City Council shall proceed to fulfill said conditions, the cost thereof to be paid by the surety on said bond. Such work shall be performed in the manner set forth in Title 26, Lincoln Municipal Code, known as the Land Subdivision Ordinance, as now existing or as may hereafter be amended.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication according to law.

AN ORDINANCE amending Title 24 of the Lincoln Municipal Code by adding to Chapter 24.16 thereof a new section to be numbered Section 24.16.230, relating to installation of plumbing.

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska:

Section 1. That Title 24 of the Lincoln Municipal Code is hereby amended by adding to Chapter 24.16 thereof a new section to be numbered Section 24.16.230, which shall read as follows:

"24.16.230. STACK VENTING. The maximum number of fixture units permitted on a three or four inch stack above a stack-vented water closet in a one-story building or on the top floor of a building shall not exceed four fixture units or combination of fixtures whose total discharge rating is not more than four fixture units; provided that the distance of the fixture trap from the stack is not over the prescribed five foot allowed. The bath tub or shower bath may be stack-vented when such drain enters the stack at the same level as the water closet drain through a side inlet sanitary tee. Two water closets, located on opposite sides of a wall or partition, or directly adjacent to each other on the wall may be served with one soil, waste, or vent pipe, as the case may be; and, two bath tubs or two shower bath drains may be stack-vented when such drains enter the stack at the same level as the drains of the closets through a double sanitary tee with one two (2) Inch side inlet or a double sanitary tee with two (2), one and one-half (1½) inch side inlets. The soil, waste, and vent pipes must be sized to the equivalent of size of branch required to serve such two fixtures when individually installed, but in no case shall more than four (4) fixture units connect above the stack vented water closet, or closets, as case may be.

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication according to law.

Introduced by C. Robert Fulton.

Governors Reject Censure Of Barnett

Hollywood, Fla. (AP) — The Executive Committee of the National Governors Conference refused Thursday to consider a proposal that Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi be censured.

Gov. Albert D. Rosellini of Washington, chairman of the national governors, said the 3 committee members who met here at the windup of the Southern Governors Conference felt that censure was not a proper matter for the committee or the national conference.

"We feel that each governor is the sovereign head of his state, and the best judge of knowing what is best to do about his own particular problem," he said.

The national governors conference never has censured the chief executive of a state.

The censure proposal was made by Gov. John Swainson of Michigan, who was not here to take up the matter. Swainson said Barnett should be censured for his defiance of the federal integration order at the University of Mississippi.

Thursday at Lansing, Mich., Swainson withdrew the Barnett censure proposal and asked instead that the committee call for a statement of principle concerning defiance of federal court orders. But the committee dealt with the original request.

While only 3 of the 9 members of the executive committee were present here, Rosellini said he did not think the subject would be revived when the full committee met in January. He said none of the other governors he had communicated with had endorsed the censure move.

Rosellini said his personal opinion was that while he sympathized with Barnett's position, "I am not in agreement with his position. The law should and will prevail."

3,000 Expected At Meeting Of Cafe Operators

More than 3,000 persons are expected to attend the second annual Nebraska Food and Equipment Show when the state restaurant operators meet in Lincoln's Pershing Auditorium Sunday and Monday.

This, said Ed Shonquist of Omaha, president of the Nebraska Restaurant Association, will represent the largest gathering of food operators and personnel in the state's history.

The highlight of the program will be the presentation of the Mary Lutz trophy to that state's outstanding restaurateur of the year by Gov. Frank Morrison at Monday's luncheon.

The convention will end Monday evening with the annual banquet and election of officers.

Officials To Meet

Sidney (AP) — The fall meeting of the Panhandle County Officers' Assn. will be held Tuesday, Oct. 9, in Chadron. Bill Smith, Potter, chairman of the Cheyenne County Board of Commissioners and head of the Panhandle Association, will preside at the sessions.

THANK THE LADIES ...Bless 'em all!

Improved food isn't the only reason why American women are beautiful and brainy. But the improvements have let us enjoy the ladies more.

It used to take between 5 and 6 hours of hot kitchen work to turn out three meals a day. (Still does, in Europe!) Now they can be prepared in less than a half hour each. Because many foods today have "built-in maid service." They're "ready" foods: mixes, instants, precooked, partly or fully prepared.

Yet—the lady of the house spends a smaller share of your pay for food than before, or since, World War II.

Never underestimate a lady, fellows. She keeps America's biggest business (that's the food business) on the jump. And that's a big reason why—

Ag Price Index Slightly Higher

. . . Livestock Figures Up 4 Points

The index of prices received by Nebraska farmers for the things they produce climbed by one point—or about one-third of one per cent—during the month ending in mid-September, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported Thursday.

Slightly higher prices for some livestock and livestock products helped boost the index to 272 despite lower crop prices.

Under the index, the 1910-14 period represents the base period of 100 points.

Compared to a year ago, the mid-September index was up 13 points and reflected higher prices for wheat, corn and meat animals.

The crop index dropped 6 points during the month to 192 but this was 4 points higher than last year.

At 302, the livestock and livestock products index had gained 4 points for the month and was 16 points above last year.

Hog prices rose for the 4th consecutive month to a mid-September average of $18.30 per hundredweight.

Cattle declined 30 cents per hundredweight for the month to a $24.50 average.

Wheat averaged $1.89 per bushel, corn averaged $1.04 and oats averaged 61 cents a bushel on Sept. 15, unchanged from August.

Barley and rye prices fell for the 4th consecutive month, to 80 cents and 83 cents respectively.

Soybeans averaged $2.15 per bushel, 4 cents less than a month earlier but 3 cents more than last year.

Baled hay at $15 a ton was off 30 cents, and potatoes were down 18 cents for the month to $1.62 per hundredweight.

Continue Hearing For Don Borden; Held Under Bond

Broken Bow (AP) — Don R. Borden, 26, of Grand Island, was held under $5,000 bond here Thursday after continuance of a preliminary hearing on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses.

County Judge C. A. Mattson continued the hearing until Oct. 16 to permit Borden to get an attorney.

Borden was taken into custody Wednesday as he left the state insurance department in Lincoln. Custer County Attorney John Evans said Borden represented himself as an agent of the Western Empire Life Insurance Co. of Denver. In doing so, Evans said, Borden took $1,100 from a Callaway farmer, Francis Pandorf, for an insurance policy.

Evans said the Denver firm advised him Borden was not a company agent.

The clerk of the district court in Madison County told the Custer County sheriff in Broken Bow that Borden is on probation there for a 1961 no account check conviction.

Visitors Study Women's Activities

Two visitors to Lincoln have come a long way to see what the women are doing in this country and how they are doing it.

They are Miss Grace John and Mrs. Agnes Nderitu from Mombasa and Nyeri District, respectively, in Kenya, Africa, who are here as participants in the 1962 Kenya Community Development Project of the U.S. State Department.

They arrived in Lincoln Tuesday and plan to stay until the day after Thanksgiving.

Under the sponsorship of the YWCA, which has provided residence for them at the Y's Miller Hall, they will study community development.

They will observe various committees in the YWCA, participate in an international YWCA tea, study the leadership training program of the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Nebraska, visit Home Eomnomics Day, and sit in on some Girl Scout and Red Cross conferences.

The backgrounds of Miss John and Mrs. Nderitu consist almost entirely of social and community work. Miss John has been an assistant nurse, a nursery school instructor, and community development assistant in Mombasa for 6 years. At present she is a child welfare officer and vice president of National Women's Organization of Kenya.

Mrs. Nderitu has had 5 years' experience as a community development assistant, two years as assistant probation officer, 4 years of broadcasting experience, and is now a social worker with the African District Council in the Nyeri District.

Charges Filed In Fatal Car Crash Against Jansen

Schuyler (AP)—A charge of motor vehicle homicide has been filed in County Court by County Attorney Francis O'Brien against Robert W. Jansen, 27, Norfolk, one of the drivers involved in an accident which claimed two lives.

Earl Wragge, 44, Howells, and Raymond Hofmann, 41, Norfolk, were fatally injured in the intersection collision at the junction of Nebraska Highways 15 and 91, north of Schuyler Sept. 21. Wragge was alone in his car and Hofmann was a passenger in the car driven by Jansen.

Jansen pleaded innocent at his arraignment before County Judge Joseph Broz and was freed on $2,500 bond. A preliminary hearing was scheduled Nov. 6.

Special Dinner To Mark USDA's Centennial Year

A centennial dinner honoring 100 years of the U.S. Department of Agriculture will be held Oct. 17 at the University of Nebraska Center for Continuing Education.

Local and state government officials, agricultural leaders and USDA employees and their wives have been invited to attend the dinner, which will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Oct. 17. A number of special guests and friends of agriculture also will attend the dinner, according to A. V. Nordquist, state-federal statistician, and E. W. Janike, director of the Nebraska Agricultural Extension Service, who are co-chairmen of the event.

Texan Added To State Temperance League

The Rev. James Hamilton of Fort Worth, Tex., has been added to the staff of the Nebraska Temperance League, announced the Rev. John F. Norman, executive director of the league.

A graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, the Rev. Mr. Hamilton has been active in the Texas Alcoholic and Narcotic Education Association, the Texas suborganization of the National Temperance League.

He will be doing educational work in western Nebraska.

Delay Hearing For Youths In Tree Damage

Omaha (AP) — A preliminary hearing for 3 youths accused of tree vandalism in Omaha's Memorial Park last summer was postponed Thursday.

The 3 had been scheduled to appear before Municipal Judge John Clark for hearing to determine whether they should be bound over to District Court.

Instead, attorneys appeared for the trio and argued that the felony charges should be quashed. They were granted a week to submit briefs. The judge also gave the prosecution an additional week to present answering briefs.

Russell R. Lamp, 19; Eugene Osmond, 18, and William S. Rynearson, 19, all of Omaha, were charged with "wilfully and maliciously" sawing down trees "in a grove located" in the park.

The 3 admitted to police they cut down a small evergreen for a party and a large elm. The offense took place Aug. 4.

John Ford, attorney representing Lamp, led the defense attack, saying the boys' parents "should not be subjected to the embarrassment of having their sons branded as felons and put in the same class as murderers, burglars and rapists."

Welfare Dept. Clears Mississippi University For Federal Fund Use

Washington (AP)—A Welfare Department spokesman said Thursday the situation at the University of Mississippi has been clarified to the point longer being withheld.

Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze had directed the department to withhold payments from the university pending clarification of the situation there.

The short-lived ban applied to funds for student loans and grants under the National Defense Education Act and other money for vocational rehabilitation and Public Health Service grants.

Sunday Closing Ordinance OKd By G.I. Council

Grand Island (AP) — The Grand Island City Council has enacted a Sunday closing ordinance which is patterned after one now in effect in Omaha.

The ordinance, passed this week has been under consideration in Grand Island since last fall. It will become effective upon publication Saturday.

It restricts general retailing on Sundays, with fines ranging from $25 to $100 for each violation. It includes a Sabbath clause which allows stores to close on Saturday's and be open on Sundays.

$645,000 Issue On Sutton Ballot

Sutton (AP) — Sutton voters will go to the polls in a special election Oct. 30 to decide whether to issue bonds for a $645,000 junior-senior high school.

The project has been under study for 10 years and the 6-year high school is one of 3 alternatives recommended by the State Department of Education.

If the new building is constructed, the present building would be turned over to elementary grades.

6 Boys Admit Stealing From Stores And Cars

Police apprehended 6 Lincoln boys who admitted shoplifting merchandise from several stores throughout the city, and stealing goods from parked cars.

The boys, ages 12 to 15, were released to their parents, who must appear with them before juvenile authorities.

Motors Pace Stock Rally

New York (AP) — Motors paced a late stock market rally Thursday, leading prices up from sluggish irregularity.

Buyers were attracted to motor stocks by news of a favorable reception for the 1963 auto models and news of both a big gain in auto output for the week and in auto sales for September.

Another encouraging item was that department store sales in September equalled the record set in March. On the negative side, rail carloadings were sharply below a year ago.

As prices began to jog upward, gains of some of the more volatile issues were exaggerated by short covering. This is the purchase of stock to repay borrowed stock which has been "sold short" in hope of a price decline.

For much of the day, however, it was a dawdling, watch-and-wait stock market.

Volume sank to 2.53 million shares from 2.61 million Wednesday and, once again, was the lightest since Sept. 10 when 2.52 million shares changed hands.

The Dow Jones industrial average made a fair-to-middling advance of 3.89 at 582.41.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 1.4 to 216.1 with industrials up 2.2, rails up .7, and utilities up .7.

Of 1,192 issues traded, 583 advanced and 439 declined. New highs for the year totaled three and new lows 26.

Korvette was the most active stock, off 2⅞ at 30⅜ on 101,300 shares. Second was Polaroid, up 3¾ at 117¾ on 39,300 shares.

Third was Firestone, off ⅛ at 27¾ on 29,000 shares.

Next came General Motors, up 1⅜ at 54¾, and Sperry Rand, up ⅛ at 12.

Among the other auto stocks, Ford rose 1¼, Chrysler 1⅝, American Motors ½, and Studebaker ½.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were generally higher in slow trading. Volume was 760,000 shares compared with 720,000 Wednesday.

Corporate and U.S. government bonds improved slightly in slow trading.

AP COMMODITY INDEX

New York (AP) — Weighted wholesale price index of 35 commodities declined to 161.03.

Previous day 161.58, week ago 162.57, month ago 163.34, year ago 165.92.

Butcher hog prices dropped to their lowest level since early June Thursday on a heavy supply of 7,500 butcher hogs, well above advance estimates. The one-day price break was the biggest in at least 5 years.

The heavy run, which depressed prices $1 to $1.25 a hundredweight in slow trade, was partly in response to the National Farmers Organization calling a recess in its livestock withholding movement.

Supplies for the first 4 days this week total 30,000, largest run since the week of June 4. Thursday's top price of $17 for around 200 head matched the June 4 price when receipts totaled 10,000 head.

The bulk of the No. 1 and 2 grade butchers scaling 200-230 lbs. went at $16.50-$17. Mixed 1-3 grades at 190-250 lbs. brought $16-16.75 and sows scaling 320-400 sold for $14.75-$16.75. Mixed 2-3 grade butchers at 250-280 lbs. sold at $15.75-$16.25 and sows 400-550 lbs. at $13.75-$15.

Prices were steady to weak on heavy Thursday cattle receipts totaling 1,200 head, above advance estimates. A few loads of good and low choice steers weighing 1,000-1,200 lbs. sold at $26-29. Scattered head around 1,200 lbs. brought the $29.50 top, lowest since Sept. 13.

A load of mixed choice and prime 825 lb. heifers went at $28.25. Choice 900-1,000 lb. heifers brought $26.50-$27.75. A few good vealers sold at $25-27.

In the sheep division, all classes were steady on a supply of 1,000 head. Trade was moderately active. A few choice and prime 90-105 lb. lambs sold at $20-$21. Most good and choice grades at 80-105 lbs. brought $18-20.
